Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 437, as follows:

An Act empowering authorizing and directing the Secretary of Highways to acquire toll bridges located wholly within Pennsylvania providing the procedure therefor providing for the operation of such bridges as free bridges after acquisition and making an appropriation

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The words "toll bridge" as used in this act shall mean any bridge whereon toll is charged located wholly within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania over any stream of river or over a stream or river and the facilities of any public service company and shall include the actual bridge the approaches thereto and all real and personal property including the franchise belonging to the owner or owners of such bridge and used in the operation and maintenance of same

Section 2 The Secretary of Highways is hereby authorized to acquire on behalf of the Commonwealth any toll bridge as defined in this act The acquisition of such toll bridges may be either by purchase or by condemnation proceedings as the Secretary of Highways may deem expedient The time or times when such toll bridge or bridges shall be acquired shall be determined by the Secretary of Highways with the approval of the Governor and in making such determination due regard shall be had to the importance of such toll bridges from a traffic standpoint but the Secretary of Highways shall proceed with the acquisition of such toll bridges at the earliest date he shall deem expedient The cost of acquiring such toll bridges shall be paid by the Commonwealth as hereinafter provided

Section 3 The Secretary of Highways shall whenever he determines to acquire any such toll bridge ascertain or estimate the value thereof and shall in writing give notice of such valuation to the owner or owners thereof Such notice shall contain an offer to purchase such toll bridge at the valuation made by the Secretary of Highways

Section 4 If the owner or owners of such bridge accept such offer or whenever the Secretary of Highways and the owner or owners of such bridge shall agree on a purchase price after negotiation the Secretary of Highways and said owner or owners shall enter into a written agreement by the terms of which the owner or owners shall transfer to the Commonwealth at and for the price agreed upon a good sufficient and marketable title to such toll bridge as herein defined Such agreement shall further provide that the purchase price agreed upon shall be paid to the owner or owners in equal annual installments over a period of not less than five years nor more than fifteen years All agreements for the purchase of any toll bridge as herein provided shall be approved by the Governor and the Attorney General

Section 5 In the event the owner or owners of any such bridge do not accept such offer or whenever the Secretary of Highways and the owner or owners of any such bridge cannot agree on a purchase price as hereinbefore provided application shall be made by the Attorney General to the court of common pleas of the county in which such bridge is located or in the case of a bridge on the boundary line between two or more counties then in any of such counties for the appointment of viewers Whereupon said court or any law judge thereof shall appoint three disinterested freeholders to view such bridge and estimate the value thereof None of said free-holders shall be a resident of the county wherein such application shall be made The said court shall fix a time not less than twenty nor more than thirty days thereafter when said viewers shall meet upon the property and view the same The said viewers shall cause at least ten days' personal notice of the time and place of such first meeting to be given to the Attorney General and to the owner or owners of such bridge if resident within said county If said owner is a corporation such notice shall be given to the president secretary or treasurer thereof if such officer resides within said county If neither said owner nor any of said officers reside within said county or cannot be found therein notice of such first meeting shall be given as said court may direct

Section 6 The said viewers having been duly sworn or affirmed faithfully and impartially to perform the duties required of them under the provisions of this act shall at the time fixed for said first meeting proceed to ascertain as accurately as may be the value of such bridge and to that end may require the attendance of any person whose testimony may be pertinent thereto and the production of any such books and papers as said viewers may deem necessary If any person shall refuse to appear and testify before such viewers or refuse to produce such books and papers when thereto required the said court or any judge thereof shall upon application of said viewer or a quorum thereof make such order therein as may be necessary

the value of said bridge they shall prepare a full report of their labors Said report shall include a plan showing the location of said bridge Upon the completion of said report the viewers shall fix a time when they shall meet and exhibit same Ten days' written notice of the time and place of such meeting shall be given to the Secretary of Highways to the Attorney General and to the owner or owners of said bridge At the time and place mentioned in such notice the said viewers shall meet and publicly exhibit said report and hear all exceptions thereto After making any changes in such report as they may deem necessary the same shall be filed in said court

Section 8 Within thirty days after the filing of said report in said court the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any person interested may file exceptions thereto whereupon said court may confirm said report absolutely or modify it or refer it back to the same or to new viewers with like powers and duties as the former viewers

Within thirty days after final action on said report by the court the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or any person interested may demand a trial by jury

From the action of the court on exceptions or from any judgment after a jury trial an appeal may be taken by either party to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania

Section 9 The cost of said condemnation proceedings including the court costs compensation of viewers and the cost of any advertising which may be required hereunder shall be paid by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Each of said viewers shall receive a sum not exceeding twenty dollars ($20.00) for each day actually and necessarily employed in the performance of the duties herein prescribed

Section 10 As soon as the Secretary of Highways and the owner or owners have agreed upon the purchase price of any such bridge as evidenced by an agreement approved as provided in Section 4 of this act the Secretary of Highways shall take possession of such bridge in the name of the Commonwealth Whenever the Secretary of Highways determines to acquire any such bridge by condemnation proceeding he shall take possession of such bridge in the name of the Commonwealth The amount of any award or verdict under the condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of any such bridge shall be paid out of monies in the Toll Bridge Fund by the State Treasurer upon requisition by the Secretary of Highways Should there be no funds or insufficient funds in the Toll Bridge Fund to meet any such requisition then the amount of any award or verdict under condemnation proceedings for the acquisition of any such bridge or so much thereof as shall be necessary to increase the amount of monies in the Toll Bridge Fund to an amount sufficient to meet such requisition and make such payment shall be transferred to the Toll Bridge Fund from the Motor License Fund by the State Treasurer and for such purposes so much money as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated out of the Motor License Fund Such amount of monies as shall be so transferred from the Motor License Fund to the Toll Bridge Fund for such purposes shall be reimbursed to the Motor License Fund out of the Toll Bridge Fund from time to time as the same become available therein from the proceeds realized from the sale of the bonds authorized by law to be issued and sold by the Commonwealth to defray the cost of the acquisition of toll bridges wholly within the Commonwealth

It shall be the mandatory duty of the Secretary of Highways to notify the Governor the Auditor General and the State Treasurer to issue bonds to provide funds for payment of any final award in condemnation proceedings instituted for the acquisition of any such bridges

Section 11 Whenever any such bridge is acquired by the Commonwealth as hereinbefore provided the collection of tolls thereon shall cease and such bridge shall become and be thereafter a free bridge and be under the control of the Department of Highways and shall be thereafter maintained kept in repair and rebuilt by the Department of Highways in accordance with the law relating to State highways and bridges The Department of Highways shall take over and succeed to all agreements with public service companies for the use and occupancy of such bridges by the facilities of such companies such use and occupancy to be governed by the law relating to the issuance of occupancy permits on bridges under the jurisdiction of the Department of Highways

The Department of Highways may take over and succeed to any agreement in effect at the time of the acquisition of any toll bridge providing for easements and licenses in respect of such bridge which in the opinion of the Secretary of Highways will not materially interfere with the use and operation of such bridge as a thoroughfare

Section 12 Payments under the terms of any agreement providing for the purchase of any such bridge shall be made from the Motor License Fund upon requisition of the Secretary of Highways as provided by law If at any time there should be insufficient monies in the Motor License Fund to meet installment payments entered into for amicable purchase the Secretary of Highways shall call upon the Governor Auditor General and State Treasurer to sell bonds under the provisions of the Act of January second one thousand nine hundred thirty-four (P. L. 201) in such amount as will provide sufficient funds to meet such payments Following the sale of bonds as provided in this section the proceeds thereof or so much thereof as may be necessary shall be transferred by the State Treasurer from the Toll Bridge Fund to the Motor License Fund

Section 13 The interest and sinking fund requirements for any bonds issued for the payment of awards made in condemnation proceedings instituted for the acquisition of any such bridge or to meet installment payments under agreements for purchase as provided in Section 12 of this act shall be paid from the Motor License Fund The Board of Finance and Revenue shall determine the amounts necessary for such purposes and the sum or sums thus determined shall be transferred from time to time to the sinking fund from the Motor License Fund by the State Treasurer

Section 14 So much of the money in the Toll Bridge Fund or so much of the money in the Motor License Fund as may be necessary from time to time to carry out the provisions of this act are hereby specifically appropriated for such purposes Provided however That the amount to be expended for the acquisition of all toll bridges as provided herein shall not exceed a total sum in excess of seven million dollars ($7,000,000)

Section 15 The act approved the twenty-seventh day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 365) entitled "An act empowering and authorizing the Secretary of Highways to acquire toll bridges located wholly within Pennsylvania providing the procedure therefor providing for the operation of such bridges as free bridges after acquisition and making an appropriation" and all amendments thereto be and the same are hereby repealed

Section 16 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, a number of members of the House, from both sides, have spoken to me and said they were not going to pass Senate Bills 437 and 438 unless House Bill 62 is put back in the same order as it passed the House.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 482, as follows:

An Act to amend section seven of the act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 883) entitled "An act authorizing and directing the Department of Highways to erect and maintain as a post war construction project a toll bridge over the Allegheny River between a point in or near the Borough of Tarentum Allegheny County and a point in Westmoreland County and to provide the necessary approaches and connections with State highways providing for the acceptance of Federal aid empowering counties to pay certain damages providing for the collection of tolls on such bridge and making an appropriation" by appropriating funds from the Motor License Fund for the construction of said bridge

Section 1 Section seven of the act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 883) entitled "An act authorizing and directing the Department of Highways to erect and maintain as a post war construction project a toll bridge over the Allegheny River between a point in or near the Borough of Tarentum Allegheny County and a point in Westmoreland County and to provide the necessary approaches and connections with State highways providing for the acceptance of Federal aid empowering counties to pay certain damages providing for the collection of tolls on such bridge and making an appropriation" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 7 [So much of the moneys in the Motor License Fund] The sum of two million dollars or so much as is necessary for the preparation of plans for the construction of said bridge and approaches thereto and connections with State highways and for the payment of damages for property taken or destroyed and for the construction of said bridge and approaches thereto is hereby appropriated out of moneys in the Motor License Fund to the Department of Highways for said purposes

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I just want to call the attention of the Senate to the inconsistency of the action we now intend to take on House Bill No. 482. We passed Senate Bill 437 and Senate Bill 438, freeing toll bridges, and now we are acting upon House Bill 482, creating a toll bridge. The question in my mind now is; where do we go from here.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 490, as follows:

An Act authorizing and directing the Department of Highways to erect and construct a free bridge over the Susquehanna River from a point in the city of Harrisburg in the vicinity of Third and Forster Streets to a point in the Borough of Wormleysburg at the intersection of State Highway Routes 30 and 708 and to provide the necessary approaches thereto and making an appropriation

Section 1 In accordance with the general policy of the Commonwealth to provide adequate connecting bridges between main highway routes lying on opposite sides of rivers the Department of Highways is hereby authorized and directed to erect and construct a free bridge over the Susquehanna River from a point in the city of Harrisburg in the vicinity of Third and Forster Streets to a point in the Borough of Wormleysburg at the intersection of State Highway Routes 30 and 708 and to acquire the necessary land for approaches thereto

In the construction of said bridge and the approaches thereto the Department of Highways shall have all of the powers and authority conferred with respect to the relocation widening or construction of State highways Any damages sustained by reason of taking property in the relocation widening or construction of any such bridge and the approaches thereto shall be ascertained in accordance with laws applicable to the ascertainment of damages in relocating widening or constructing State highways and such damages when ascertained shall be paid by the Commonwealth or county or counties as may be agreed upon in accordance with the laws relating to State highways

Section 2 The sum of four million dollars ($4,000,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated out of the Motor License Fund in the State Treasury to the Department of Highways for the construction of such bridge and the approaches thereto and for the payment of damages for property taken injured or destroyed

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. I just want to again call your attention to the fact we are skipping back to free bridges now. This bill provides for the building of a free bridge over the Susquehanna whereas the previous bills relieve two toll bridges, makes them free, and builds a bridge over the Allegheny River and makes it a toll bridge.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 568, entitled:

An Act regulating the appointment promotion suspension reduction and reinstatement of certain employes in bureaus of police and park police in the bureau of parks in cities of the second class defining the powers and duties of civil service commissions for such purpose in said cities and repealing inconsistent legislation

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President and fellow members of the Senate, I will only take a couple of minutes to tell you just what this bill does. In the city of Pittsburgh we have our regular police department and our regular detectvie bureau, and under this bill, if it is passed, our detective bureau will be the only place, in any state of the United States, where they will be under civil service. There is no other city in any state of the Union where this exists.

Secondly, it will also affect policewomen. There are only twelve policewomen in the city of Pittsburgh, I think. I do not think they should be people picked from a civil service list. These women do specialty work. They must attend the theaters to get these mashers, as they call them, who are very prevalent, as we all know, in large cities. They also work on the downtown streets in connection with the curfew, to get these teen-age young ladies off the streets at the curfew hour, which is very necessary and which has been asked for by the military government.

Then again, two years ago we passed a bill here, sponsored by Senator Taylor, the Republican State Chairman, and Senator Wade, from the neighboring county of Cumberland, where we eliminated civil service in the state for the duration of the war and six months afterwards.

If this bill is passed, a number of young men who have gone into the armed services, who are park policemen in the city of Pittsburgh, will not have their jobs back, because their jobs will have a different title when they return. In other words, no provision has been made for the returning park policeman who happens to have been inducted into any one of our armed services. I think that is wrong, and I think, if the gentlemen on the other side will think for a moment, they will agree with me in saying that that part of the bill is entirely wrong at this time. I think we should be consistent.

As I say, two years ago we passed a bill eliminating civil service in the state for the duration of the war and six months afterwards. I had a bill to do similar things in the first and sceond class cities. That bill passed the Senate and went over to the House and got mixed up in that so-called filibuster and it was dropped from the Calendar in the closing days. I do not think we should have one law allowing appointment of state employes one way and another law where we tell the cities they shall have to appoint their people in another way.

The number of people concerned in this is very few. I am just fearful, if you pass this bill, that you are going to hurt the boys who are in the service who were park policemen before they left. As far as the policewomen are concerned, I think if you are going to be insistent and pass a bad piece of legislation like this, they should be eliminated, because I know of no way that you can conduct a civil service examination to get the qualifications that are needed in a policewoman in a large city. These women, as I say, have to do a peculiar type of work. They not only, as I say, attend theaters and get these so-called mashers that are about in large cities, but they also work on the streets to insure observance of the curfew hour by teen-agers, and they also do a great deal of work in going into homes and helping families which have missing persons, and, as a usual thing, the missing person is a young person.

I therefore ask, Mr. President, that the members of the Senate vote "no" on this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 749, as follows:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Health for the purpose of organizing projects for the adequate prevention diagnosis care and treatment of rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of one hundred twenty-thousand dollars ($120,000.00) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Department of Health for the fiscal biennium beginning the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-five for the purpose of organizing projects for the adequate prevention diagnosis care and treatment of rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease in various counties of the Commonwelath where such fever or disease appears to be prevalent

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I note that this bill calls for an appropriation to the Department of Health of $120,000. At the very outset of the session Senators Stiefel, Farrell and Haluska introduced a resolution calling for a definite program by the Department of Health. Nothing was done with respect to that resolution. Subsequently another resolution was introduced by both Senator Stiefel and myself, along the same line. Nothing was done with respect to that. We even called upon Dr. Stewart to initiate proceedings to help those afflicted with rheumatic fever. He refused to accept our invitation. We tried to treat the thing as a non-partisan matter, but apparently he ignored everyone. As a matter of fact, he ignored group after group in the city of Philadelphia which called on him, hoping for some relief for those afflicted with the worst scourge ever visited upon children.

I spoke on the subject quite some time ago, but to no avail. It was claimed that politics was being injected into the proposition. I do not have to dispute that statement because, frankly, when we consider the health and welfare of children we must subordinate politics; their health and welfare are far more important.

Within the past week or so I read a statement released by Dr. Stewart to the effect he did not want much money because it is only an experiment, and therefore only $120,000 or thereabouts was required to put the program into effect. We do not know how it will work out.

.Frankly, programs have been put into effect throughout the United States and considerable money has been spent and progress made, with the view to helping those afflicted with this terrible disease. I say to you, Mr. President, this is nothing but a gesture, and an empty one, to spend only $120,000 in the state of Pennsylvania, when our casualty list with respect to this disease is the second highest in the nation.

I am going to ask my colleagues to vote for this bill—we can not do otherwise—but let us do it in the right way or not at all. In spending only $120,000 to help those afflicted with this disease, Mr. President, I say to Dr. Stewart he has failed to serve the Commonwealth and certainly has failed to serve the children afflicted with this terrible disease. I hope he will realize in time how terrible, how dangerous this disease is.

However, I will ask my colleagues to vote "aye" on this bill.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. COX asked and obtained unamimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. COX. Mr. President, before we proceed to the next bill, I appreciate the fact that I may be out of order, but the chair is working so efficiently that the rest of us are usually three bills behind. I would like to have the privilege of very briefly making a comment about Senate Bill 775, which is a bill making an appropriation out of the motor license fund to the Joint State Government Commission of the General Assembly, to make a thorough and impartial study to develop a sound and scientific financial highway program for the Commonwealth and the political subdivisions and an equitable basis for state aid to local government for highway purposes, authorizing consultation with research organizations of recognized national standing, and defining its powers and duties.

My comment is this: there still reposes in the Committee on Welfare, Public Assistance and Pensions a bill which I introduced to set up a commission to study the whole problem of mental institutions of Pennsylvania. It seems to me a sad commentary on our system of government that a bill with that merit should receive no attention whatsoever.

Section 4 The amount of the foregoing appropriation shall be expended for any of the purposes and in the manner aforesaid and as shall be determined by the Secretary of the Department of Health with the approval of the Governor

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, House Bill 826, now up for consideration, is a bill that needs more than just a casual study. This bill makes a state appropriation of $3,400,000 for the next biennium. This money is to be used in case the Secretary of Health and the Governor should refuse to accept certain federal funds because of conditions attached to the granting of these federal funds.

We all know Dr. Stewart, and I think all the men I have talked to have a high regard for him. We know, too, that he is mixed up with the so-called Hatch Act restrictions, and is in some sort of a jam with the federal government. I do not believe the people of Pennsylvania ought to be assessed $2,127,489 in order that Dr. Stewart can participate in politics. I do not mind him participating in politics in the open, because that is perfectly all right with us. We know how cabinet officers are chosen, and if we got control of the state government we would expect to choose them along the same lines.

However, when we come to the point where we will pass an act of the Legislature to cut out state participation in federal grants, in order that an individual may play partisan politics, then I believe we are overstepping the bounds of good government and decency.

If the state government refuses to accept federal aid in this particular case, these are the items that we will be denied: Crippled children service, to the tune of $126,257; maternal and child health service to the tune of $127,497; emergency maternity and infant care, $1,873,- 735, or a total of $2,127,489 will be denied the citizens of Pennsylvania for a period of one year, if we pass this particular act of legislation. I say to you that the price is entirely too high, the price is entirely too great, to pay for any individual's participation in partisan politics.

I am willing to go on public record that Dr. Stewart can participate in all the political debates that he wants to, so long as you let us receive the money for these needy cases from the federal government.

This means that Pennsylvania will take over the burden of taking care of soldiers' wives to the tune of $1,873,000. I do not see how you can justify the passage of this bill. I do not see how any sane person can stand before the people of Pennsylvania and say this is good legislation, when all it intends to do is to say to the federal government, "we do not want your money because you would tell us how employes who are paid from this fund must be selected and how they must act."

Remember that the Hatch Act was not conceived by any of Pennsylvania's politicians; it was conceived by a combination of Republican and Democratic Congressional and Senate members; it was conceived because of charges being made that persons receiving public assistance through federal grants were participating in politics and working for the Democratic Party. When the act was passed by the federal government, the Republican Party never thought it would be used against any of their members, but it so happens that the federal law is a cover-all law, and when funds are supplied by the federal government it insists that certain qualifications must be met. It is no different than state government in its application. When we give money from the state treasury to the various school districts, we lay rules down that determine how that money must be spent; when we give money to political subdivisions out of the highway fund, we lay the rules down; and why should not the federal government, when it passes out federal funds to the various states, set up minimum standards of requirement? Even if you do not agree with the federal government's proposition, how can you justify in your own minds and to the satisfaction of the already overburdened taxpayers in Pennsylvania, how can you justify denying Pennsylvania these needed services with federal grants, when the only requirement, as I understand it, is the matter of the merit system of selection of employes and the refraining of those employes from political participation?

Mr. President and members of the Senate, you may vote a strictly partisan vote on this measure. Later, on the Calendar, we will come to a school bill that has been cut from its original requirements, by the House, and further slashed by the Senate, because you say you have not the money. The Governor handed us a message yesterday in which he said, "if you want to increase grants to schools, you will have to raise new taxes."

Where is he going to get $3,400,000 to participate in this program without new taxes? This money is already available to the state of Pennsylvania—it is already here, we can use it, we are using it—and just because Dr. Stewart happened to become enmeshed in the requirements of the federal Hatch Act is no reason why the members of this Senate should deny to the taxpayers of Pennsylvania the just share they are entitled to of federal moneys they helped to create.

I say to you this is bad legislation and has no place on the Calendar.

Mr. CARR. Mr. President and members of the Senate, the bill under discussion at the present time raises a fundamental question as to the basis of American government; it raises a question as to whether we, as the state of Pennsylvania, are an independent state in these United States.

Personally, if I had the opportunity of doing so, I would say on behalf of the state of Pennsylvania, to the federal government of the United States of America, "we do not want one cent of money from you for any purpose," and I think, when the state of Pennsylvania had done that, perhaps there would be enough of the forty-eight states in the Union willing to declare their financial independence, willing to say that no longer will we stand with a tin cup in hand and ask from the federal government that which the federal government takes away from us in taxes, and that under those circumstances we would be permitted to operate as a state, as was intended by the founders of this union of which we are a part.

Therefore I feel perfectly justified in voting for this measure.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I think the argument of the gentleman from Butler further strengthens the position we take on this bill. If that is the case, and the sentiment on the majority side is that you should not accept any federal money, I say let us put in a bill refusing federal aid for state highways, refusing all federal grants that we receive. I ask you, do you realize you are now trying to pass a program to participate in the federal aeronautics program, where large and small airports will be built all over the state of Pennsylvania with federal funds? If you do not believe in accepting federal funds, then why do you not go whole hog; why just go part way?

I can remember very clearly the hue and cry that went up from Governor James when he accused the federal government of cutting his share of the amount that was received in Pennsylvania for federal works projects, for W.P.A. and relief grants. He claimed that we were being discriminated against—he claimed that we were not receiving our share of federal funds.

Only when you need the money do you cry for federal aid. But at the present time we have a large surplus in Pennsylvania, an intentional surplus, built up—as I said before and will repeat again and again and again—because you set a certain figure in your budget and set a certain figure as the income from taxes, knowing full well the amounts do not agree. Past history proves that larger amounts are taken in than you set up as the amount which will be received from these taxes. By so doing you have money to play with—you have enough money to do away with over $2,000,000 a year of federal money, in order to keep a certain department in politics. I still say that is the charge.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I intend to vote "no" on this bill. However, while we are on this question, I might say that foresight is better than hindsight. This fellow they call Hatch—my committeemen say he has a hatchet—should use a little bit of foresight. America is a country where people should have a right to express themselves; they should have the right to go to the polls and vote as they please, and campaign as they please. I hope Senator Hatch will read our Legislative Journal, and see where I advise him to use a little bit of foresight.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, of course this is an old issue and a very positive issue in this Chamber. I realize the men on the other side do not like the New Deal, but I know they were very happy when W.P.A. came along from the federal government, and saved the homes of thousands in Pennsylvania.

I remember when the C. C. C. camps were organized. Before they were organized there was not a Republican in the United States that did not denounce them as the silliest move that was ever made, and yet Pennsylvania forever ought to get down on its knees and thank our federal government for what C.C.C. did to the forests of Pennsylvania.

I detest the Hatch Act as I do civil service. I say anybody that would be a good citizen ought to engage in politics. We read where our college professors and civic leaders say we do not have enough people in politics interested in government, and yet they come along with the Hatch Act—and civil service—and say "you can do anything in the world, but do not get into politics, do not be interested in your government."

On soil erosion the federal government wants to help in this state, but the state of Pennsylvania is not getting what it deserves.

On this bill here before us the money is paid in to Washington by the taxpayers of Pennsylvania, and to be so picayune and babyish and small just because it is the New Deal or the Democratic administration in Washington, after we pay our money into Washington, probably the biggest portion of any state in this Union outside of New York State, and then for us to sit back here and be small and babyish and not accept the money back after we pay it in to the national government.

You know, I read the other day where Senator Aiken, I think, of Vermont, said if the Republican Party still continues to listen to men like Taft, in his own party, they will never win an election in the United States. Why, for twelve years you have fought this thing, you have fought the New Deal, and yet for twelve years the American people licked that reactionary old way of living. We are living in a new age.

This concerns another bill on the Calendar today, but here is an article in the Philadelphia Record by Edwin Kemp, the farm editor of the Record, on soil conservation in this state. I will not read it all but I will quote from it.

"Instead of cooperating, state agencies have fought the government soil conservation program. That is why Pennsylvania is near the bottom of the list of the states which have organized districts. There are now a thousand such districts in the United States. Less than a half dozen are in Pennsylvania. Almost all of New Jersey is under a farmer controlled, soil saving program. Almost all of Pennsylvania is not. In some counties of Pennsylvania, State College, through its extension service, has openly campaigned against establishment of conservation districts when the proposal was put to a referendum of farmers.

"Although the state has a conservation law, efforts to render it inoperative were made as recently as two months ago by persons who apparently reflected the attitude of the state Department of Agriculture.

"Because of state antagonism, Pennsylvania was the only state in which the federal soil conservation service was compelled to set up field offices staffed with its own men, to do what extension service agents were doing in other states.

"The government insisted soil erosion was a common problem requiring common action in areas affected. The state would recognize it only as an individual farm problem.

"When Triple-A came along with a state wide program of crop and soil improvement, paying farmers to adopt practices which individually they could not have afforded, the state agricultural administration again refused to cooperate. Again Pennsylvania was made an exception and still is about the only state in which Triple-A has established its own offices in each county. In other states Triple-A functions through the extension service; the county agent is the Triple-A secretary.

"An act of Congress last year ordered that all Triple-A information be distributed to farmers by extension service in each state. In Pennsylvania, extension service has refused to do this."

If this state can not get its feet on the ground and go along with the march of progress with the other states in the Union and accept these things that the government has provided, after twelve years of service to humanity and to the people of Pennsylvania, if our Legislature here is now going to be so small as to refuse those grants, or whatever you want to call them, I feel that I am in the wrong body.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I had not intended to speak on this bill, and what I have to say has only an indirect reference to this particular bill on the Calendar, but the debate has taken a wide field and the remarks I shall make will have a more general tendency.

I can not conceive how the United States can exist as a democracy, how we can exist with a democratic form of government, if we do not have the states. One of the reasons why the states have been compelled to go to the federal government for aid is because the federal government has dried up the local source of taxation. When we passed an amendment giving the federal government the right to levy income taxes, it was freely said that never would these taxes be more than one-tenth of the income, but when the members of Congress found such a fruitful source of income they went the limit, and the southern states took advantage of the rich northern states in getting benefits far beyond what they were entitled to.

A very prominent gentleman, a member of high position in the federal government, from the state of Texas, is reported to have said, "when those Yanks get a ham I am going to get a whole hog," and he did. I think the southern states during this New Deal period and before that time recaptured, as it were, from the North a hundred times, perhaps many more than a hundred times, what Sherman destroyed in the South during the Civil War.

Pennsylvania has been supplying a large part of this revenue to the federal government. Take, for instance, the matter of state taxes and gift taxes and other taxes of all kinds; that is the reason we have been obliged to go to the federal government for help.

In the matter of income taxes, it has been argued here today, and at other times, that Pennsylvania should adopt a graduated income tax by constitutional amendment. In New York the trouble has been that the federal government took so much of the income of the citizens of New York that there was not a proper amount left in New York for the state of New York to secure, and that will be the situation in Pennsylvania on a graduated income tax.

This matter I am speaking of applies not merely as between the state and the federal government, but it applies as between the local communities and the state. We find that people come in here daily asking us to give them something from the state. They are coming here, as it were, on every occasion. That is partly because the state has done like the federal government, taken sources of local taxation, but this has been carried to the extent that the people of the communities are pushing over to the state these matters of local or self-government, and pretty soon they will lose the capacity for local government. This is not as it should be. If the people of Pennsylvania, and other states, do not realize that each individual is a part of the government, and responsible for the government, then pretty soon we will fail as a democracy and become like those countries of Europe where the people forgot their responsibilities and turned everything over to one person.

I think the most classical example of history is that of Peru. There was a nation which had advanced far in civilization, the Peru that existed before the coming of the Spaniards, but because every individual in Peru was bound up with the head Inca, when he was captured everything stopped and thereafter that nation of perhaps seven million people was overcome by a very small handful of Spaniards.

I referred recently to a noted traveler from France, who came here about 1835 and traveled over this country and then went back and wrote a famous book on democracy in America—de Tocqueville was his name. I just want to take a moment here and read something which seems to me very pertinent. This gentleman at that time was impressed with the fact that there was a decentralization of government here in America and that was the reason this nation was becoming such a marvelous new nation. He compared that with the situation in Europe, where everything seemed to depend on a central government, and he said "* * * the political advantages which the Americans derive from their decentralized system would induce me to prefer it to the contrary plan. It profits me but little, after all, that a vigilant authority always protects the tranquillity of my pleasures, and constantly averts all dangers from my past without my care or concern, if this same authority is the absolute master of my liberty and my life, and if it so monopolizes movement and life, that when it languishes everything languishes around it, that when it sleeps everything must sleep, and that when it dies the state itself must perish.

"There are countries in Europe, where the natives consider themselves as a kind of settlers, indifferent to the fate of the spot which they inhabit. The greatest changes are effected there without their concurrence, and (unless chance may have apprized them of the event) without their knowledge; nay, more, the condition of his village, the police of his street, the repairs of the church or the parsonage, do not concern him; for he looks upon all these things as unconnected with himself, and as the property of a powerful stranger whom he calls the government."

I may inject by saying that was the condition under the W.P.A., that the federal government planned for the repairs of an alley in an outlying district of the state.

Returning to the quotation: "He has only a life interest in these possessions, without the spirit of ownership or any ideas of improvement. This want of interest in his own affairs goes so far, that if his own safety or that of his children is at last endangered, instead of trying to avert the peril, he will fold his arms and wait till the whole nation comes to his aid.

"When a nation has arrived at this state, it must either change its customs and its laws, or perish; for the source of public virtues is dried up."

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, the trouble with the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, is, as the saying goes, he sees the trees but not the forest, and his favorite tree seems to be the weeping willow.

I want to congratulate the Secretary of Health, Dr. Stewart, upon his stand, and I want to offer my congratulations to the Senator from Butler, Mr. Carr, for these two gentlemen bringing the issue up. I do not like to talk about myself, but I have at home a very interesting paper which I obtained, an official report from the Bureau of Internal Revenue in Washington, and it is a beautiful instance of what might be called the inverse ratio of the New Deal, that the southern states and all the poor states are benefited by taxes which are paid by Massachusetts, New York, Illinois and Pennsylvania, the rich states, and you can see it perfectly on these sheets of paper, that these rich states send their money to Washington and there part of it of course disappears, used up in administration, and the rest of it goes to Alabama and all the southern states, so that we are very, very altruistic in these wealthy states, because we are paying into a fund at Washington for the support of our poorer sisters.

One more personal note, and that is, I have had for two years in my desk a resolution, which is a concurrent resolution, and it says—the forty-seven other states concurring—the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will no longer receive federal funds. I was going to ask for immediate consideration, but, on second thought, the resolution is still in my desk.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I have realized for a number of years that Senator Ealy was very much worried about the future of America and the New Deal. I remember very distinctly in 1936 and 1940, in those campaigns, all we heard was "Oh, this New Deal is making us soft, nobody is going to work, it is going to destroy America." I did not hear that argument in 1944. The best proof of it all is this, we have been at war for four or five years, and this New Deal that has governed our country for twelve years and that was going to make us soft so that we would not work, we would all be beggars down on our knees to the federal government, we would all be spoiled, the war came along and what has happened? We have produced the grandest and the greatest army that ever trod this earth, the greatest navy that ever sailed the seas. It is a sort of a coincidence that here today the leaders of the reactionary crowd of Europe, Mussolini and Hitler, are dead, but this New Deal had so served its people back home, were so concerned about them back home, they did not go to Washington and forget the people back home, they were concerned about every home owner and every worker in America. That is what makes fighters, that is what makes an army. Ah, the armies that have got tyrants at the head and have them ground down, those boys can not fight, they can not sail the seas, like those of the American Government, which looked after its people, and built young men and women during those years, so that when a war came on they showed what real government does when it is concerned, not with the few at the top, but down back into every home in America.

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President and members of the Senate, we have heard from the other side that Pennsylvania should not and does not want to accept any more money from the federal government, but I can not sit still and refrain from pointing out to the gentlemen on the other side that under Senate Bill 585, introduced by the gentleman from Lancaster, a bill which was to take away the $30 per month assistance to the blind people of Pennsylvania and to relegate the blind to the roll of a relief recipient, that bill was admittedly framed and introduced into this Senate for the purpose of receiving additional federal funds. Neither do I forget that the Governor's stream clearance program calls for an appropriation, a gift, by the federal government to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, of $10,000,000.

We can not blow hot and cold at the same time. Either you folks were wrong on those two major matters or you are wrong now. It seems to me we go back to the same theory you had when you considered the Farrell-Woodring resolution to memorialize Congress to set up the machinery to institute a worthy and everlasting peace, when the answer was, "we can not do it because we are opposed to memoralizing Congress," and then the very next week the majority members introduced a resolution to memorialize Congress. It seems to me we at least ought to be consistent.

There has been a lot of talk here, and the hour is late and I am sorry for prolonging the debate, but this is an important measure, and it is an expensive measure, and I therefore feel justified in taking a few minutes.

In addition to the $3,400,000 of appropriations carried in this bill, there is an additional amount which ought to be considered; there is the grant by the United States Public Health Service of $955,000 which has already been set up for Pennsylvania for the year 1945, and which, put on a biennial basis, amounts to $1,910,000, so that, added to the $3,400,000 appropriation in this bill, totals $5,310,000 that this bill is going to cost the people of Pennsylvania.

I think the answer to the whole question of the merits of the bill is summed up in an editorial in the Philadelphia Record of April 25, one week ago tomorrow. My friends will say, "Oh yes, but that is the Philadelphia Record," and so that I am on the record properly, I read both papers, I take the good out of both, and I think this is a logical editorial and I therefore will read it. It is captioned "State G. O. P. Offers $3,400,000 To Keep Dearest Liability," and is as follows:

"Secretary of Health A. Hamilton Stewart is one of Pennsylvania's worst liabilities.

"Yet the Republican State machine would throw away $3,400,000—throw it, in fact, into Uncle Sam's face—in order to keep Stewart in power.

In the House at Harrisburg Monday night, the GOP majority passed the Bower bill. It would provide—out of the taxpayer's pocket—$3,4000,000 to replace Federal contributions of that amount to State health services.

"The Republican organization just refuses to be told by the Federal Government how the Federal contributions should be spent. It would rather spend its own . . . er, the Pennsylvania taxpayer's money.

"And what brought up this issue? The Federal Government, through the U. S. Civil Service Commission, told the State to fire Dr. Stewart.

"Dr. Stewart, the commission found, violated the Hatch act in the 1942 campaign by macing Health Department employes. If Pennsylvania didn't dismiss Stewart, twice his $10,000 salary would be withheld from the Federal contributions to his department.

"Instead of complying, Harrisburg officialdom felt offended. Rep. Adam T. Bower, Northumberland Republican, introduced this bill, a $3,400,000 spite bill.

Bower, oddly enough, is chairman of the House Labor Committee, which has yielded to reactionary pressure and kept the Brown Fair Employment Practice Commission bill bottled up. Gov. Martin opposes the Brown bill because it would cost too much—$300,000 a year. Yet his administration boys are willing to spend $3,400,000 to keep one of its office-holders in power.

"Dr. Stewart is the man who as chairman of the State Sanitary Water Board refused to make the coal operators halt the dumping of waste into State streams. He held up for months Pennsylvania's participation in the Federal program of material aid to servicemen's wives. He has failed to participate in the Federal-State program against rheumatic fever. The Hatch act citation adds another malodorous note to his record.

"The GOP now is willing to spend $3,400,000 to perpetuate in office a man who has consistently blocked the people in their desire for progress. We used to get reaction without special appropriations for it. Now we have to pay extra for it!"

I am going to vote against the bill.

Mr. KEPHART. Mr. President, this is not a question, in my mind, of the New Deal, it is not a question of Dr. Stewart, it is not even a question of receiving grants from the federal government. The question is whether the federal government can come along and offer a grant and say "if you take it, you must let us run your employes in this manner, in that manner, in the other manner."

We have received grants from the federal government for two purposes, for stream clearance—we have no quarrel with that type of grant, at least I do not—but we have refused to receive grants from the federal government in connection with the blind, because the federal government insisted, as a condition to the grant in connection with the blind, that the blind be put on a pauperized basis, and the state refused to see its blind on that basis.

Here we are refusing to receive this grant because the federal government may want to attach the condition to it that it can govern the employes in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. That is a state right. It is a state right that the federal government has no right to take away from this Commonwealth, and it is a state right we should not be bribed to let them take away.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, it looks like another civil war is about to start and Pennsylvania is about to secede from the United States. Down in the news room they call this bill the Federal Hatch Act Evader Bill. It looks like Pennsylvania is going to take out its squirrel gun and shoot the federal boys if they come within the boundaries of the state limits.

The price is too high in this bill. I, for one, think the Hatch Act is as unconstitutional as any act that was ever written. I do not see any need for House Bill 826.

I see Dr. Stewart is in the Senate Chamber now, and I would like to say this t ohim: I do not have much money, but I will at least put a hundred dollars in a kitty and start a test case, and let us take this Hatch Act up to the Supreme Court and throw it out, as it should be, and then we will not have squirrel-like legislation on our books like we have today.

Mr. CARR. This will be very brief. I still say that if I have ten dollars in my right hand pocket and someone comes along and takes that ten dollars out of my right-hand pocket and puts five dollars back in my left-hand pocket, with strings attached to it, I am against it.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, my dad always told me, when I was a kid, "when somebody starts hollering there is a thief in the room, look in his pocket for your purse." I do not think the federal government should be charged with taking out of the pockets of the state the amount of money obtained from the state and kicking back half of it.

This is not in any way a matter of bribery, as the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kephart, says it is.

When we give money to the school districts we tell them what qualifications teachers must have, and when the federal government gives us money, it makes specific provisions and tells us what qualifications the employes must have. That is all it is, I say.

I will say to the kind old gentleman from Philadelphia that I may be a weeping willow, but I would rather be one of those than an old ash out of the forest.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, I have heard in the last twelve years many isolationist speeches, complaining about America entering into world cooperation with other nations, but I never thought I would live to hear in the Senate of Pennsylvania real isolation speeches being made by Senators who, by their way of thinking, should secede from the Union. Anyone knows that these are the United, —and I emphasize United—States of America, and each one of the forty-eight states has a responsibility to the other states. The United States will be as strong as its weakest state, unless the rich state helps to bring up the poor state.

To go out on a limb, like has been done today, and say because Pennsylvania is an industrial state, selling its industrial machinery to the world and the other forty-seven states, that we should keep all the riches and all the profit here, is not according to the Constitution of the United States of America. If these other forty-seven states did not buy our products we would not work in Pennsylvania.

And when you speak of going to the federal government with a tin cup, who went to the federal government first? Did the federal government come to us when the people of Pennsylvania were starving and when a Republican President and a Republican Governor did nothing about it? No. You and I know it was the then Governor of the state who went to the federal government and asked for aid to feed the poor and house those who did not have proper housing.

Yes, as Senator Barr says, it was the bankers who went there first and asked the federal government for aid, and I know that in Pennsylvania the same bankers who were crying for aid in 1932 are the bankers today who are crying the loudest about the New Deal that let them keep their banks, and saved the system under which we all live.

I say to you, Mr. President, if we in Pennyslvania should build a fence around Pennsylvania, fencing is the worst type of isolationism and the worst type of patriotism that I have ever head of. We are a member of the United States of America, we are one of the forty-eight states, and we owe a responsiiblity to the other forty-seven, and if, through the wealth of Pennsylvania, we can go to the South and help the poor of the South, that is our duty, and those who say they follow the teachings of the Christian religion should not raise their voices at helping the poor of the South. If we followed the teachings of Christ, which we should follow, we would not care where we helped the poor, whether it be in the South or in the tropical countries of the Pacific or the darkest forests of Africa; if we have the money we should help. Since God has been good to Pennsylvania and permitted us to make money, we should share it with other states which are poor and need help.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise on a parlimentary inquiry.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, House Bill 826 is a special appropriation bill, with restrictions in it, does this bill not require a two-thirds vote in the Senate of Pennsylvania.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The parliamentary inquiry of the gentleman from Westmoreland is not well taken.

Mr. BARR: Does the Chair have any authority in support of its ruling?

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The Chair has ruled. If the gentleman from Allegheny so desires, after reference to the rules of the Senate, he may appeal from the ruling by the Chair.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, there is nothing in the rules that I can find to support the ruling by the Chair.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it does not matter so long as the question was raised; if the bill becomes law, and that is a requirement, it will be immediately thrown out by the courts, so we will let it rest at that. The constitutional requirement is what it is.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 839, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" by further regulating the affairs of boroughs and revising amending and changing the law relating thereto

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

REPORT FROM SUB-COMMITTEE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to report from a sub-committee to the main committee of Mines and Mining Senate Bill 605, for action by the main committee, and I do it publicly because there is a controversy on this question.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Let the Legislative Journal note that the sub-committee has made a report on Senate Bill 605. The Chairman of the Committee on Mines and Mining may receive the bill from the Secretary.

RECESS

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess until 10:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern War Time.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor John C. Bell, Jr.) in the Chair.

The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 62, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections four and ten of the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 149) entitled "An act imposing a State tax payable by those herein defined as distributors on liquid fuels used or sold and delivered within the Commonwealth which are ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power providing for the collection and lien of the tax and the distribution and use of the proceeds thereof requiring such distributors to secure permits to file corporate surety bonds and reports and to retain certain records imposing duties on retail dealers common carriers county commissioners and such distributors providing for rewards imposing certain costs on counties conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments providing for refunds imposing penalties and making an appropiration" as last amended by imposing an additional tax on liquid fuels providing for the payment thereof into the Motor License Fund making appropriations and providing for the distribution to certain political subdivisions of this Commonwealth with certain conditions making an appropriation to the Joint State Government Commission for certain purposes and imposing duties on the Department of Highways

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. GELTZ offered the following amendents:

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 4), page 3, line 26, by inserting after the word "effective": "June first nineteen hundred forty-five"; Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 10), page 6, lines 15, 16 and 17, by striking out the words "for the two calendar years beginning the first day of January one thousand nine hundred forty-six"; Amend Sec. 1, (Sec.) 10), page 6, line 18, by striking out the words "and in the manner as"; Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 10), pages 6 and 7, by striking out all of lines 20 to 28, both inclusive, on page 6; all of lines 1 to 11, both inclusive, and the words "the year in which an allocation is made" in line 12, on page 7; and inserting in lieu thereof:

"One cent per gallon of the tax collected under the provisions of this act shall be paid into the Motor License

Fund of the State Treasury and such moneys paid into said fund are hereby specifically appropriated to the cities, boroughs, towns, and townships of the Commonwealth for the purposes hereinafter set forth.

"Fifty per cent of the money shall be allocated on the basis of population and the other fifty per cent shall be allocated on the basis of road and street mileage. Each city, borough, town and township shall receive its proportionate share of the moneys allocated on a population basis as their population bears to the total population of all the political subdivisions of the Commonwealth, and each city, borough, town and township will receive an allocation based upon the number of miles of local roads and streets under its jurisdiction in relation to the total number of miles of roads and streets in all of the cities, boroughs, towns and townships of the Commonwealth."

Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 10), page 8, line 7, by inserting after the word "submitted": "annually"; Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 10), page 8, lines 13 and 14, by striking out the words "appropriated allocated and apportioned herein from", and inserting in lieu thereof: "paid into"; Amend Sec. 1, (Sec. 10), page 8, line 14, by inserting after the word "Fund": "from time to time"

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I rise on a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Lackawanna will state his point of information.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, do I understand that the amendments have been approved.

The PRESIDENT. They have not.

Mr. COLEMAN. I ask that after the approval, assuming the Senate approves the amendments, that House Bill 62 go over in its order on second reading as amended.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair suggests that the gentleman from Lackawanna make his request later. Opportunity will be given to the gentleman from Lackawanna to be heard.

(The Senate was at ease.)

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I withdraw my request that House Bill 62 go over in its order.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

(A voice vote having been taken, the question was determined in the negative.)

Mr. DENT. Division, Mr. President, I call for a division.

Mr. BARR. Roll call, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. Two Senators having demanded a roll call, they are entitled to it under the Constitution.

The Clerk will call the roll.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT and Mr. BARR and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—20

Barr,	Geltz,	Klein,	Ruth,
Coleman,	Gourley,	Margie,	Stiefel,
Cox,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Troutman,
Dent,	Holland,	McGinnis,	Wagner,

Chapman,	James,	Stevenson,	Wilson,
Crider,	Jones,	Tallman,	Woodward,

So the question was determined in the negative.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. GELTZ offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 2, pages 10 and 11, by striking out all of lines 22 to 28, both inclusive, on page 10; and all of lines 1 to 15, both inclusive, on page 11.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. GELTZ offered the following amendment.

Amend Sec. 3, page 11, line 16, by striking out the figure "3", and inserting in lieu thereof: "2".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

An the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

Mr. GELTZ offered the following amendments:

Amend the title, page 2, sixth and seventh from last line of title, by striking out the words "making appropriations". Amend the title, page 2, last four lines of title, by striking out the words "making an appropriation to the Joint State Government Commission for certain purposes and imposing duties on the Department of Highways".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the title?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have a set of amendments to this bill, which I think are almost identical with those Senator Geltz has offered. We on the minority side are not being fooled by what has happened on the other side this evening. I do say that I think Senator Geltz was very sincere in offering these amendments because I knew what his attitude was in the committee last Thursday, when this bill came up.

I do not know what the rules of the Senate are with regard to offering amendments when they are just almost verbatim with what has been offered by another Senator. I would like the Chair to rule.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would not consider such amendments. The Senate has already passed on them and voted them down.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 62, on second reading, go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. HEYBURN. I object, Mr. President. We are trying to wind up the session, and no purpose would be served by putting this bill over in its order.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not believe the lame excuse that we are trying to wind up the session should be sufficient to serve as a reason for objecting to the request that the bill go over in its order.

The Chair has ruled that the amendments prepared by Senator Barr are not in order at this time. In order that we can get amendments that will be in order, it will be necessary for the bill to go over in its order tonight. It is a House bill and can easily remain another day on the Calendar. If the gentleman from Delaware is sincere, then there will be no motion made tonight that any bill go over in order, but if you all stay around long enough you will see many bills going over in order tonight. If you are winding up this session for this bill, then you ought to wind up the session on all bills.

I would like it clearly understood that the purpose of the amendments was to make an equitable distribution of this one cent gas tax back to the cities, townships and boroughs in the Commonwealth.

Under the bill, as it now stands, a certain amount of that one cent tax will be returned to the highway fund, which already at the present time has an enormous amount of surplus money in its treasury which can not be spent. Almost every municipality in the state is in need of money, especially for the purposes outlined in this bill. Our streets are in a bad state of repair. The past winter has ruined many of the main thoroughfares in our cities; country roads have been torn up by usage and weather. The position of the main cities of this Commonwealth is critical. The services that the citizens are entitled to cannot be rendered because the communities do not have the money to put their streets in shape.

I think we ought to face the issues squarely, and I say that the highway department is being small and picayune in stealing four-tenths of a cent out of this gas tax, which, originally set up as an emergency tax, now becomes a permanent tax. The definite purpose in mind, when the act was to be made a permanent act, was that the money would be returned to the municipalities.

We passed a big truck bill which will further destroy the streets in the cities, with the specific purpose in mind that we intended to pass this bill which would give relief to the municipalities. The House of Representatives passed this bill in a form that was acceptable to all concerned. Now we find ourselves in the position where the Highway Department is after more money, with its pockets already bulging and with money jingling—for what purpose I do not know. There has been no reason given for this money being returned to the Highway Department. Can anybody in the Commonwealth say that the Highway Department needs money? Is there anybody here not acquainted with the fact that the Highway Department has an enormous surplus? Show me any municipality in the Commonwealth that has a surplus. Show me any city that can do the proper job that has to be done with the streets. The Highway Department is acting in a very picayune fashion by demanding its blood out of this bill, and I say that the members of the Senate will find that the House, in its good judgment, will not go along with these amendments.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I happen to be very familiar with what is going on with this one-cent tax bill. I told the sponsors of the bill, to take over the toll bridges, today what I thought might happen in the House. Last biennium, out of the regular highway fund, there was appropriated to second class townships of this state $7,000,000 for the upkeep of their roads. This year there will be no bill with that appropriation. In other words, the highway fund will be enriched by $7,000,000.

Governor Martin, and his budget comptroller, tell us they think this one cent tax will bring $22,000,000 into the treasury. The way the Senate has amended the bill, they want to appropriate $8,500,000 each year, and they want to do it on a mileage basis. In other words, they do not want to take into consideration the fact that where the money comes from is from the people where the roads are used most, where the greatest population is.

I do know there were certain persons that were definitely interested—and I am not speaking of the sponsors of the toll bridges. I know there are certain other people that have a very definite interest, who do not want to pay that toll charge, as there are certain vehicles going back and forth over those roads each day.

Mr. President, there also were reported out on this floor today, I think, 73 bills. I did not come to Harrisburg this year to see how fast I could get out of Harrisburg. As the first day of the session opened we put forth a program which we, as the minority, would have liked to put into effect. I also heard the Governor's speech the first day, and he had a program, and as to his program Mr. President, there has only been one phase of his four major things put into law at this time.

If the majority side will not give me the courtesy of considering my amendments, which the Chair has refused to accept tonight, I will refuse tonight to have any one of these 73 bills reported from committees today read for the first time. That is not a threat. That is a rule of the Senate; if anyone objects to the reading of bills for the first time, that is his privilege. I just want to let the majority side know we are not here to be trampled on and we are not here to be stampeded. We know their caucus kept us an hour and a half later than it should have tonight—I do not criticize them for that—but when one of their men comes in here and offers amendments Mr. President, and they all vote against them, I do not like the people of the Commonwealth to be fooled by such antics.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, if the gentleman from Allegheny, my good friend, Senator Barr, wants to start another filibuster, of course, there is nothing to do about that; that is his privilege.

In connection with this bill here tonight, Mr. President, two years ago the Legislature charged the Joint State Government Commission with responsibility for preparing a plan for distribution of gasoline moneys to local governments. Cities, boroughs and first-class townships had never gotten any before, and everybody agreed they should have some return. From that commission, Mr. President—and, by the way, Senator Dent is a member and Senator Barr is a member—came a plan of dividing this one cent gasoline revenue, by a percentage basis of three-tenths of a cent to boroughs, cities and first class townships; three-tenths of a cent to second class townships and four-tenths of a cent to the highway fund.

Mr. President. the complaint about that was, during these days of shortage of gasoline, that the revenue would not be sufficient and that second-class townships and cities would maybe only get five or six million dollars. No one knows, of course, how much gasoline will be sold in the next two years, but certainly there is danger that the amount of gasoline sold will be less than it normally is. Then, Mr. President, came this plan of making an outright appropriation so that the boroughs, cities and townships would know just exactly how much money they are going to get to divide—$8,500,000 to cities, boroughs and first-class townships—which never had gotten any money before: and $$8.500.000 to second-class townships.

Along with that, Mr. President. the study of distribution is to be continued in order that there will be a proper method worked out for distributing this money.

Mr. President, this session is now drawing to a close. I want to remind my friends on the left that this bill has been amended here, it has to go back to the House, and certainly we do not want to lose this bill. We know this bill will be signed by the Governor and that the local governments will get $17.000.000 and certainly, Mr. President, we do not want this bill to go over in its order and take any chance of losing it. That is my reason for objecting, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to reiterate my previous remark to the Majority Leader, that I will still object to all bills reported from committee today being read for the first time because I, as a resident of the city of Pittsburgh, will not sit idly by and see them robbed during the next biennium of possibly half a million dollars, through the reasons I have previously stated, by some special interest trying to get enough money out of this one cent supposedly emergency tax to buy toll bridges immediately.

I happen to be a member of the Joint State Government Commission, and I also have some of their figures in front of me and, Mr. President, I am sorry to say that I have never read more erroneous figures. I am not a student of mathematics, but I can add, multiply and divide. Their figures, according to this $8.500.000 appropriation, would show that on a fifty-fifty basis the city of Pittsburgh would get $309.917, and under the hundred per cent mileage basis, as the bill appears before us tonight, it would give them $999.000. If we take the Joint State Government Commission figures there would be a difference of $74.010 each year, but, Mr. President, their figures are not correct. The true figures, on the budget controller's estimate of $22,000,000 coming in under this one cent tax, would be these: under the mileage basis of $94 per mile, the city of Pittsburgh would get $66,000, and under the 57 cents per capita, the city would get $382,000; in other words, $448,000 a year.

I do not think that I, as an elected representative of the people in Pittsburgh, can stand idly by and allow a thing like this to be steamrollered through this Senate. As I said before, I think we come here to pass legislation. I have never fallen for that thing of coming here and getting out as quickly as we can. If we are going to have a session each year and limit it to so many days, possibly the members of the Senate, myself included, will start to work earlier in the session. I am not for this power play in the last week of the session. I am willing, Mr. President, if we can come to some amicable agreement, to sit here all through this next week, if we are going to take this supposedly emergency one cent tax and make it a regular tax, to give it back to the cities, boroughs, and townships on an equitable basis.

I still repeat, Senator Heyburn, if you insist that this bill does not go over in order tonight, I will insist that no bill will be read the first time of the 73 bills that came out today.

The PRESIDENT. There is objection to the bill going over in its order.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

It will agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 112, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor and the Board of Trustees of Indiana State Teachers' College to acquire a certain tract of land for the use of said school and making an appropriation therefor

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 171 on second reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the complete medical and dental examination of all children of school age and teachers and other school employes in the public and private elementary and secondary schools of the Commonwealth and imposing certain duties upon the Department of Health and the Department of Public Instruction and making an appropriation go over in its order.

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, this bill needs to be amended.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I object. We are trying to finish the session this week.

The PRESIDENT. There is objection.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 171, on second reading, go over in its order.

Mr. SCARLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. WOODRING and were as follows, viz:

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 238 on second reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the fifth day of January, one thousand nine hundred thirty-four (P. L. 223), entitled "An act providing compensation to certain persons who served in the military or Naval forces of the United States during the World War, the war between the United States and Spain, the China Relief Expedition, or in the Philippines or Guam; providing the method of making payment to representatives of persons who, because of death or incapacity, cannot personally receive compensation; imposing certain duties on the Adjutant General; making an appropriation; and repealing inconsistent legislation; and providing penalties," by further providing for compensation to certain persons who served in the military or naval forces of the United States during the Cuban Occupation, the Porto Rican Occupation, the Cuban Pacification, or who served during a certain time in the Philippines and was awarded a campaign medal; and making an appropriation.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I object for the same reason.

The PRESIDENT. There is objection.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 238 on second reading, go over in its order.

Mr. LETZLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT and were as follows, viz:

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, we are awaiting amendments, and I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 279 on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-three (App. Acts p. 15) entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Highways out of the Motor License Fund for the purpose of rebuilding county bridges carried away or destroyed by fire flood or other casualty and of carrying out the provisions of existing laws relating thereto" increasing the amount of such appropriation and extending the time thereof

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I object.

The PRESIDENT. There is objection.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 279, on second reading, go over in its order.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 291, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the State Council for the Blind for use in improving the condition of the blind by supplying to adult blind vocational training which will lead to remunerative employment with seeing workers to provide for their employment and placement in industry business and the professions to obtain required medical service for such training and placement to meet expenses necessary for their program and to take any action necessary to accept any grants from the Federal Government or any agency thereof to further these objectives

And said bill having been read at length the second time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second reading?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I want to remind the members of the Senate that they are accepting a grant from the federal government, or putting themselves in a position to accept a grant, under this bill, which today they said they did not think should happen.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on second readings?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

HOUSE BILL No. 171 CALLED UP

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, from page 22 of today's Calendar, I call up for consideration at this time House Bill No. 171, on second reading, entitled:

An Act providing for the complete medical and dental examination of all children of school age and teachers in the Commonwealth and imposing certain duties upon the Department of Health which temporarily went over in its order, and offer amendments on behalf of the gentleman from Warren, Senator Chapman.

(The amendments were presented to the desk, after which the following occurred:)

Mr. COX. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. COX. Will the gentleman from Delaware tell me why he had the bill go over in its order, when the gentleman from Northampton, Senator Woodring, originally wished to introduce amendments.

Mr. HEYBURN. Because, Mr. President, there were amendments being prepared and they were not ready. That is the reason I requested that the bill go over in its order at that time. Senator Chapman did not have the amendments ready at that time.

Mr. COX. Will the gentleman tell me if he knows whether Senator Woodring had amendments to offer at that time.

Mr. HEYBURN. No, I do not know that.

Mr. COX. If the gentleman does not know he is not very observant, or he is hard of hearing, because the Senator from Northampton took the floor and wanted to offer amendments.

Mr. HEYBURN. No, Mr. President, the Senator did not. He took the floor and announced that the bill was not in proper shape. I drew his attention to the fact that I expected to request that the bill go over in its order. Senator Woodring and I have always had a very pleasant relationship, Mr. President, and I suggest the Senator from Allegheny allow us to continue.

Mr. COX. Mr. President, I suggest to the gentleman that this side and his side up until this time have had very pleasant relationships, which I certainly hope are not going to be disturbed by the sort of tactics I see being attempted here tonight.

As far as I am personally concerned, we have not reached the stage in this Legislative Assembly where we should even dream of adjourning, because of the many things that have to be done for the people of this Commonwealth, and we have no right, because of some whim or caprice of the Governor, to forget we are the representative body of the people of this Commonwealth. It is our obligation, as well as his, to see that the affairs of the Commonwealth are run as they should be run.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, I rise on a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman will state his point of information.

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, do I understand that House Bill 171 has been called up.

The PRESIDENT. It has.

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, I desire to offer amendments at this time, but before so doing I would like to make a brief statement.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Northampton send the amendments to the desk?

Mr. WOODRING. I will, Mr. President. I ask that the amendments be read for the information of the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. As the gentleman from Northampton knows, amendments to this bill have already been proposed. The Chair will have to examine these suggested amendments in order to ascertain what sections of the bill they apply to.

REQUEST THAT THE SENATE RECESS

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate do now recess for ten minutes in order that a Democratic Caucus may be held at this time, in room 400.

Will the Chair entertain my request.

The PRESIDENT. As the gentleman from Allegheny is aware, the Chair has no right to declare a recess, or, did the gentleman from Allegheny address his request to the Republican Floor Leader.

Mr. BARR. No, Mr. President.

RECESS

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now recess for ten minutes.

Mr. DENT. I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, before the motion is put I would like to have the Secretary announce there will be a Democratic Caucus in room 400 immediately upon recess.

The PRESIDENT. The Secretary will so announce.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion.

It was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

BILL ON SECOND READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 171, entitled:

An Act providing for the complete medical and dental examination of all children of school age and teachers and other school employes in the public and private elementary and secondary schools of the Commonwealth and imposing certain duties upon the Department of Health and the Department of Public Instruction and making an appropriation

The first section was read and agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

The PRESIDENT. Members of the Senate, Senator Heyburn offered amendments to House Bill 171, which seek to amend section 14. Senator Woodring then offered a number of amendments, which start with section 2. Because of the custom of the Senate with respect to bills on second reading, which, in the opinion of the Chair, is a very peculiar and unusual one, the Chair rules that any section which is called up can be amended. Since a technical ruling is requested, the amendments to Section 14 will not be considered until we get to section 14.

For authority, the Chair refers the members of the Senate to Jefferson's Manual, page 276.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. WOODRING offered the following amendment:

Amend Section 2, page 2, by inserting between lines 8 and 9 the following paragraph: "Mental Examiner" means a doctor of psychiatry legally qualified to practice psychiatry in the Commonwealth who has been appointed or approved by the Secretary of Health.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment:

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I do not know about Jefferson's Manual, but I do know the members of the Senate are completely confused. Therefore I ask permission to withdraw my amendments until after the amendments offered by the Senator from Northampton are considered.

The PRESIDENT. The request of the gentleman from Delaware is granted. The amendments are withdrawn.

Is the Senate now ready to consider the proposed amendment to Section 2, offered by the gentleman from Northampton, Senator Woodring?

(The Senate was at ease.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the negative.)

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, my amendments by their nature cover, I believe, every section of this rather lengthy bill. Because the majority members have shown their disfavor of my amendments, I am going to ask permission to withdraw them, but before doing so I want to state what my amendments sought to achieve.

I wanted two things done by this bill. I wanted, first, of all, to have children of fourth class school districts put on a par with those of first, second and third class school districts. The bill, as presented to the Senate, provided for state financed physical and dental examination of children of first, second and third class districts. I could not agree with that theory, because as I see it, in the first, second and third class school districts, which are your large cities, your small cities and your boroughs, we have hospital facilities, we have clinics, both public and private, and we have doctors in abundance, and physical and dental examinations are being pretty well taken care of without further subsidy, but in the rural districts, in the fourth class districts, where we do not have the hospitals and where we do not have the doctors, we need clinical and dental examinations very sorely, and I therefore put that thought into my amendments. I understand the majority side amendments take care of that provision and I will say no more about it.

The other major purpose of my amendment was to include mental examinations of school children, as well as physical and dental, and I think until we reach the stage where we realize the importance of mentally examining our children, finding out their queer kinks and their instabilities while they are yet young, while they are yet subject to environment and training and careful attention, we are missing a very major factor in child care. It is well enough to take care of their bodies, and it is good to take care of their teeth, but if we do not take care of their minds, we might just as well forget their bodies.

So I think my amendments are badly needed in this bill. I am sorry that the majority side has turned them down.

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

Mr. WOODRING. Mr. President, having turned down the major proposition, that is, the definition of a mental examiner, I desire, Mr. President, to withdraw the balance of my amendments.

The PRESIDENT. Very well, the amendments are withdrawn.

And the question recuring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, ninth tenth, eleventh, twelfth, and thirteenth sections were read and agreed to.

The fourteenth section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. HEYBURN on behalf of Mr. Chapman offered the following amendments:

Amend Act, Section 14, page 6, line 16, by inserting after the part word "aminers" and before the word "Medical" the following: "school districts of the first second and third class and"; Amend Act, Section 14, page 6, line 16, by inserting after the word "examiners" and before the word "shall" the following: "in fourth class school districts"; Amend Act, Section 14, page 6, line 24 by inserting after the word "the" and before the word "medical" the following: "funds receivable under the provisions of this act have been paid to medical and dental examiners nurses and dental hygienists or other assistants for the purposes of the act"; Amend Act, Section 14, page 6, line 24, by striking out after the word "the" the words "medical and dental examiners have"; Amend Act, Section 14, page 6, by striking out all of line 25. Amend Act, Section 14, page 6, line 26, by striking out the following at the beginning of the lines: "scribed in this section".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

Mr. ROSENFELD. Mr. President, I do not rise to object to the amendments, but I do think this would be a very appropriate time to point out what to me is the very inconsistent position taken by the gentlemen on the other side.

This afternoon we debated for an hour and a half the provisions of House Bill 826, which involves acceptance by the state of federal funds, and in which bill there was a prohibition against accepting any federal funds if there were any directive which the Governor of this Commonwealth would not accept in the use of those funds. It appears to me that as citizens we are citizens of the city, the state and the nation. We heard in great detail this afternoon the arguments of the gentlemen on the other side, who indicated they would rather not accept federal funds than be under any direction of the federal government. That bill, I believe, dealt with the present Secretary of Health.

Much to my surprise now I note House Bill 871, which also deals with the present Secretary of Health and which requires, in Section 3, that any of the medical and dental examiners in any of the school districts must be appointed or approved by the Secretary of Health, and I assume that means otherwise the grant from the state to the school district would not be approved.

As I said when I started out, I am not speaking against the bill, but I do think the gentlemen on the other side are inconsistent when they talk about state rights but forget about home rule.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth sections and title were read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to as amended,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

FELICITATIONS EXTENDED TO SENATOR AND MRS. RUTH

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I am sure the members of the Senate will not mind if I call to their attention the fact that the gentleman from Berks, Senator Ruth, is today celebrating his thirty-sixth wedding anniversary. Thirty-six years ago today the gentleman from Berks wooed and won a very charming young lady, and he still sees in his life partner the same charm and the same personality that captivated him thirty-six years ago.

I know the Senate of Pennsylvania will not mind pausing in its arduous labors to extend their congratulations to him.

As this grand couple go down the hill of life together I know they carry with them the sincerest wishes of all the members of the Senate for many more years of happiness.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes Senator Ruth.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President and members of the Senate, this anniversary was not like it was on May 1, 1909. I just had a talk with my wife by telephone today. I would be glad to admit here or anywhere else in the world that I still think there is no finer woman in the world than Mrs. Ruth. Thank you.

Mr. HEYBURN. The question arises, naturally, as to whether the gentleman has any family.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Berks consent to be interrogated?

Mr. RUTH. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HEYBURN. I am sure the members of the Senate are interested in knowing whether the gentleman from Berks has any family, and if so, how many.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, I can start now and for the next hour tell you about my family. We were blessed with four girls and six boys and we still have four of each, and we have three grandchildren now.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 419, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred forty-three (App. Acts page 45) entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Department of Highways out of the Motor License Fund for the purpose of rebuilding certain bridges in the County of Wayne destroyed by flood in said county during the month of May one thousand nine hundred forty-two" increasing the appropriation for the construction of certain bridges

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT BILL

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 514 on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend subsection (b) of section sixteen of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 487) entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in boroughs towns and townships as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors requiring the county commissioners of the various counties to act as a registration commission therefor and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens parties political bodies registration commissions commissioners registrars inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions county election boards election officers municipal officers departments and bureaus police officers courts judges prothonotaries sheriffs county commissioners peace officers county treasurers county controllers registrars of vital statistics certain public utility corporations real estate brokers rental agents and boards of school directors and imposing penalties" requiring registrars to sit in voting precincts upon the petition of a certain number of qualified electors thereof.

be recommitted to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. BECKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, this will be my first talk on the floor of the Senate during this session. I learned a long time ago that a person could learn a great deal by sitting by and listening to words of wisdom from others, rather than get up and monopolize the floor of this Senate. I have been here now for four months and I think I have acquired some knowledge.

I introduced Senate Bill 514 because, to my mind, there was great need for a bill of this kind in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and I want at this time to express my thanks to Senator Farrell for his kindness in permitting this bill to be placed on the Calendar at this late date.

I would like to interrogate Senator Heyburn, the maker of the motion to recommit Senate Bill 514.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. KLEIN. Is the gentleman from Delaware familiar with the provisions of Senate Bill 514?

Mr. HEYBURN. Somewhat, Senator.

Mr. KLEIN. Just what would the bill do, as far as the gentleman knows.

Mr. HEYBURN. As far as I know, fifty electors can petition for registration up to three days before an election. I did not object to the bill; the objection came in caucus and I am carrying out the wishes of the caucus. I also consulted with the president of the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania, who told me a short time ago that this bill just could not be handled, as far as the Commissioners are concerned.

Mr. KLEIN. What reasons did the commissioners assign for not being able to handle a bill of this kind.

Mr. HEYBURN. It would be pretty difficult, I suppose it would, to have a registration three days before an election.

Mr. KLEIN. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, I think the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Heyburn, is badly misinformed about the provisions of this bill, and if that is the reason the bill is being recommitted, I think the members of the Republican Caucus are in very serious error about the provisions of this bill, and I would like to state very briefly just what Senate Bill 514 does.

The law as it now stands, pertaining to registration of voters in boroughs and townsihps, gives the right to one hundred electors of any borough, town or township to petition the County Board of Elections to set a registration day within that particular borough or township.

Senate Bill 514, which I have introduced, simply changes the law in one respect. It now says, instead of one hundred electors petitioning the County Board of Elections, fifty persons within a particular precinct shall have the right to petition the County Board of Elections to set an election day within that particular voting district.

I would like to say this, that the sole purpose of this bill is to give to people in Pennsylvania who are not registered, and particularly at this time, because of mass migration from one part of the state to other parts of the state, from one municipality to another municipality—an opportunity to register, and make it much easier and much simpler, by giving them a registration day within their particular voting district. That is all the bill does. It does not change the law with respect to time of registration. It only makes it a much easier and much simpler proposition for people who are now engaged in defense work, whose time is now occupied, whose problems of transportation are difficult, people who can not afford to spend the money or the time to visit the court houses, it only makes it easier for them to make themselves eligible to cast their ballots on election days.

I say this to you, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, that if we make it easier for the people of the boroughs and towns to register, we will get more people to vote, we will get more people to take an active interest in the affairs of government, and when we have a greater number of persons taking an interest in their government, it is very likely that the people of this Commonwealth will be rewarded by better government in the Commonwealth.

So I say to you, gentlemen, in all sincerity, this bill is non-partisan; it is not a political measure at all. I think it is a fair bill. It gives to the Republican Party the same opportunity to register people as it does to the Democratic Party. I would ask that the majority party reconsider their action, because I am positive they are not familiar with the provisions of this bill, they do not know what it does. Perhaps they have not had opportunity to study it, and I wish that they would give it some further consideration. I am confident, if they give it the consideration to which it is entitled, that they will come to the same conclusion as I have, that the bill is a good bill and should be passed by the Senate.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, as I said awhile ago, somebody in caucus made a motion to have this bill recommitted. I do not have a copy of the bill; I do not know exactly what the provisions are.

I have no objection, Mr. President, to withdrawing the motion to recommit the bill and let it pass second reading, with the understanding that if the caucus has the same objection tomorrow, I will make the same motion to recommit it tomorrow.

Mr. DENT. That is satisfactory, Mr. President.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I withdraw the motion to recommit Senate Bill 514 to the Committee on Elections.

Mr. BECKER. I withdraw my seconding of the motion, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The motion to recommit is withdrawn.

BILL ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order.

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 514, entitled:

An Act to amend subsection (b) of section sixteen of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 487) entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in boroughs towns and townships as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors requiring the county commissioners of the various counties to act as a registration commission therefor and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens parties political bodies registration commissions commissioners registrars inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions county election boards election officers municipal officers departments and bureaus police officers courts judges prothonotaries sheriffs county commissioners peace officers county treasurers county controllers registrars of vital statistics certain public utility corporations real estate brokers rental agents and boards of school directors and imposing penalties" requiring registrars to sit in voting precincts upon the petition of a certain number of qualified electors thereof

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 568, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by further providing for the minimum compensation and increments of members of the teaching and supervisory staffs of school districts and vocational school districts county superintendents assistant county superintendents and district superintendents and providing for reimbursement by the Commonwealth and by school districts for pupils attending schools of other districts and repealing certain provisions of said act and of other laws relating thereto go over in its order.

Mr. THOMAS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. COX. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the Majority Leader.

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. COX. Will the Senator from Delaware tell me his purpose in having this bill go over in its order?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, the purpose, as I understand it, is because there are some amendments being prepared and they are not ready yet.

Mr. COX. Mr. President, history once again is repeating itself. I can not forget back in 1943, when for some months we considered the necessity of increasing the compensation of teachers, because their salaries were so ridiculously low, and the whole matter was delayed until the dying days of the session. The same thing is happening here—the bill goes over tomorrow and then we take what we get.

Yesterday, when I came into the Senate, I found on my desk a press release from the Governor of this Commonwealth, in which he eulogizes himself for his munificence in setting up in his budget, and later adding to it, the greatest sum that was ever spent on education in Pennsylvania. This evening I saw an answer to a telegram which came from the Governor, as the result of a request by one of the Republican leaders of my county for his support of House Bill 568, in the form in which it was introduced in the House, and once again he pointed to the fact that he was setting up more money than had ever been expended for education in Pennsylvania.

What would you think if the federal government, during the dark days of the depression, had responded to the pleas of the people of all of the states and commonwealths in the United States by pointing to its budget and saying "we are spending more money than we have ever spent in the history of the United States?"

Mr. President, we have considered this matter long enough and I certainly think we should be in a position to make up our minds as to what we are going to do. I want to reaffirm the credit I gave to the membership of the House, a thing I have not seen in the five sessions of this Legislature of which I have been a member.

I want to say I am satisfied that on the Republican side of the Senate there are many men who feel as I do, that the total sum expended is not the answer to the problem. The net result is what you do for education in Pennsylvania.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, last Thursday this House Bill, 568, was amended and it took five days for it to be printed. Earlier this evening I requested that a bill go over in order and I was told by the Majority Leader that, due to the lateness of the session, the bill could not go over in order. Now he tells us they have amendments to this bill, that they are going to offer amendments. I will admit they have the votes and they can do almost anything they want, but if the gentleman from Delaware is sincere, which I do not think he is, if they have amendments which are going to be adopted on this floor, we will be here until next Wednesday, because tomorrow is Wednesday, this bill will not get to the printer before Thursday, and it then will not come back to us before next Tuesday.

Now, Mr. Heyburn, why are you not sincere and why don't you stop kidding the people of this Commonwealth?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, that little speech is almost too ridiculous to dignify with an answer. However, I want the gentleman from Allegheny to know I am not kidding the citizens of the Commonwealth. The bill that passed here awhile ago was in shape to pass, Mr. President, and, of course, we have to clean up the Calendar as much as we can, but we are not ready to consider this bill yet because of the reasons I just gave him.

Mr. COX. Mr. Persident, may I further interrogate the Majority Leader?

The PRESIDENT. Will the gentleman from Delaware permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. COX. Will the gentleman tell me why there is so much haste to adjourn this week?

Mr. HEYBURN. Because, Mr. President, there is a war on and we have been around here long enough. The thing to do is to go home and get to work.

Mr. COX. Mr. President, that is the most facetious answer I have ever heard on the floor of this Senate.

I think this is one of the most important things concerning the welfare of the people of this Commonwealth, and because the Governor of this state has told this Legislature, "now, boys, I want you to get out of town," we are going to delay doing the job that certainly we have to do. Never in the history of this Commonwealth have we been in the financial position to do the things we are in today.

In 1943, when this Senate passed a bill creating an education commission, I was overjoyed because I felt, when we came back in 1945, we were going to be able to give Pennsylvania a much needed reform in its entire educational system, and now, in the so-called closing days of the session, we find ourselves in a wrangle about this picayune bill—picayune because it does not do what it could do for Pennsylvania.

I think, if we come down to the realities and the verities of life, we have to forget everything excepting the job we have to do and how we are going to do it, and, as far as I am concerned, until we do something for the educational system of this state, we can stay here forever. I am perfectly willing to do so. And I will say this to you, tomorrow, when you consider these amendments in your caucus, I will be very happy to accept your kind invitation to be present.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, if I am not mistaken, there was a war on the first week we were here; there has been a war on every week we have remained here. Today there were 73 bills reported out of committee. I defy any member of this Senate to read 73 bills before tomorrow's ssesion. In fact, as the gentleman from Allegheny county just said, they will not be printed.

If there is a war on, why did we not work the months we were loafing, when the administration could not make up their minds what they wanted to do? It is all right, these pretty words about a war being on and waving the flag, but for weeks and weeks we sat here and did not do a thing, we did not earn even the salaries we were supposed to be earning; we just sat here and looked at each other a few hours each week, adjourned and went home, and the war was on then. In fact, the war is drawing to a close, and it was more important when we first came here to sit down and do our work and have the administration bring in a program. They talked about a program and made fiery speeches. The Governor made a [illegible] speech about what he was going to do for Pennsylvania. Here we are in the dying days of the session, and what has been done? We have not done anything. He has not carried out his flowery words of his program. And now tonight, Mr. President, with 73 bills coming out of committee, 73 bills to be considered tomorrow, and in the next few days, I say to you no member of this Senate can give legislation the proper thought or proper study, by bringing out in one day more bills than we brought out in all the months we sat here waiting for the administration led by Governor Martin to give us a plan.

Would you like to know the reason why they waited until the last day? I have been in the Senate just a little bit too long not to know they wait until the last day for one reason, so that they can put over sneak bills, so that the people back home can not be aroused at the type of legislation being passed. You are afraid to let us go home over the week-end, because you know very well if you do the bill appropriating gasoline money will be protested by the people of your district. You are not giving enough money to the big cities to handle traffic. When the Senator from Somerset speaks about the federal government taking all the money, I say to you this is a very unhealthy condition, with the treasury of the state of Pennsylvania bulging over with money, and the communities, boroughs, townships and cities are broke, and they are broke because here in the state of Pennsylvania you are taking the money.

When the gentleman from Somerset speaks about the great amount of money they are sending to the federal government, I want to tell him that we in Allegheny county, and the people of Philadelphia county, are giving you the money to give into these other districts. We are not complaining, but we believe when you speak about education the foundation should be the same. Our people who have homes in Pittsburgh have a right to demand from the state, which is taking industrial tax money out of the city of Pittsburgh, that some of that be returned. You have a right to pay for the handling of traffic in the city of Pittsburgh out of the gasoline money. Your appropriation does not do it. $3,000,000 in the city of Philadelphia is being used to handle traffic and $900,000 in the city of Pittsburgh.

In the city of Pittsburgh a man who owns a home has to pay the salaries of 210 policemen, who should be protecting his home, but they are handling traffic. Right here in Harrisburg you are taking money—you know it is not done in any other state—and you sit here and put through a big truck bill to destroy more streets, but you do not say one word about where the money goes that the truck men pay into the state. Why do you not do like they do in other states, and give one-third of the gasoline money back and twenty-five per cent of the driver's and owner's license money? All the other states do it, but Pennsylvania does not.

I say to you, gentlemen, you are not playing the game fair, trying to put through in the last minute things so that the people will not know what you are doing; trying to force us to consider 73 bills when there is no man that can consider 73 bills in the time they are supposed to pass the Senate.

I say to you that you are neglecting your duties as Senators, and your administration has neglected to provide the effective administrative we expect from a Governor. You have not given us a program and now you are saying to us we have not time. What have you done with the time you wasted? You wasted time, and now you are trying to shove these things down the throats of the people of Pennsylvania and if any one objects, you say we are holding up the session and there is a war on. Gentlemen, we know there is a war on—everyone knows there is a war on—but you did not know there was a war on for the last few months; you twiddled your thumbs and you did nothing, and now you say to us today, "don't object, there is a war on." I say to you the people of Pennsylvania are not going to be fooled. They are going to ask, the next time you run, what you did in the first three months of this session, when you sat here and did not do anything until you consulted all the interests of Pennsylvania. You did a lot for the insurance companies, and you did a lot for the bankers. In the first few weeks their program was handed to you and you had to do it. You are trying to do a lot for the utilities. Their program was given to you and you had to do it. You know why, I do not have to ask you. All you have to do is look and see who were the donators to the Republican party.

An the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

(A voice vote having been taken the question was determined in the affirmative.)

The PRESIDENT. The motion is carried and House Bill No. 568 goes over in its order.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 784, entitled:

An Act to further amend section three hundred twenty of an act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth class and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" as last amended by section four of the act approved the fifteenth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine (P. L. 365)

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

REQUEST THAT BILL GO OVER IN ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 806, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections twenty and twenty-one of the act approved the first day of June one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine (P. L. 420) entitled "A further supplement to an act entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation' approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred seventy-nine" by clarifying the provisions for the appraisal and valuation of the capital stock of corporations subject to capital stock and franchise taxes and by changing the gross receipts fraction applicable to foreign corporations doing business in this Commonwealth go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have noticed for the last hour that the Majority Leader has requested that bills go over in order and we have not objected, but I would like to just call to the attention of the members of the Senate just the title of that bill, so they can see why it can not go over in order. It is just another bill to help the corporations.

The PRESIDENT. There is objection to House Bill 806 going over in its order.

MOTION THAT BILL GO OVER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that House Bill No. 806, on second reading, go over in its order.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BARR and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—17

Barr,	Gourley,	Klein,	Rosenfeld,
Coleman,	Haluska,	Margie,	Ruth,
Cox,	Holland,	McCreesh,	Stiefel,
Dent.	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Woodring,
DiSilvestro,

NAYS—31

Becker,	Ealy,	Letzler,	Troutman,
Berger,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Tyler,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that House Bill No. 1258, on second reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2045) entitled "An act relating to the support of indigent persons publicly cared for or assisted providing for the support of such persons by certain relatives and for the recovery of public moneys expended for care and assistance from the property and estates of such persons providing for guardians of the person and property of such persons providing for the arrest and seizure and sale of the property of deserters and providing procedure" by abolishing the liability of grandchildren and grandparents of indigent persons to care for maintain or financially assist such persons go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILL ON SECOND READING, AMENDMENTS OFFERED

Agreeably to order,

The rule requiring bills to be considered in Committee of the Whole being in this case dispensed with,

The Senate proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1278, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

Mr. BERGER offetred the following amendment:

Amend Section 1, page 6, line 20 by striking out the figures "3,900.00" and inserting in lieu thereof the figures "5,000.00."

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

Mr. CHAPMAN. I object, Mr. President, and ask my colleagues to vote the amendment down, because it would jeopardize the whole hospital bill. They are now getting $5,000 over the allotted amount. Mr. President, there is an increase in the appropriation to the hospital in Senator Berger's district. These hospital appropriations have been gone over very carefully by the Committee on Appropriations, we think we have justified them, and they have been approved by the Governor's office, and any amendments now may jeopardize the whole bill and kill your hospital appropriations.

I therefore ask my colleagues to vote the amendments down.

Mr. BERGER. Mr. President, it appears there is some misapprehension on the part of the offerer of the amendment. I had understood that the original sum was put in by error and should have been as the amendment provides.

AMENDMENT WITHDRAWN

Mr. BERGER. For the time being I will withdraw the amendment and see if it can not be straightened out with the Chairman of the Committee on Appropriations.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second section and title were read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time, and agreed to,

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL ON FIRST READING

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 552, on first reading, entitled:

An Act relating to the regulation and control of rents rental agreements and certain other landlord-tenant relationships with respect to lands and buildings used for commercial purposes establishing a maximum rent ceiling for such building and lands providing for appeals to the county commissioners in certain cases and imposing penalties be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

HOUSE BILL No. 119 CALLED UP

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I call up for consideration at this time House Bill No. 119, on page 4 of today's Calendar.

BILL ON THIRD READING AMENDED

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 119, entitled:

An Act providing for the construction erection and maintenance of roadside rests adjacent to State highway routes providing for the acquisition of interests in land by gift purchase or condemnation granting powers to and imposing duties upon the Department of Highways the Secretary of Highways the Governor and the Department of Property and Supplies authorizing rules and regulations and providing penalties for violations thereof and making an appropriation

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend page 2, section 1, line 1, by striking out after the word "exceed" and before the word "shall", the word: "[forty]" and inserting in lieu thereof the word: "sixty-seven"; amend page 2, section 2, line 8, by inserting after the word "rests" and before the word "The", the following: "The cost of the planning, acquisition, construction and erection of any one rest shall not exceed twenty-five hundred dollars ($2500)"; amend page 3, section 5, line 7, by inserting after the word "hundred" and before the word "thousand" the word: "fifty"; amend page 3, section 5, line 7, by striking out after the word "dollars" and before the word "are", the figures: "[($100,000)]", and inserting in lieu thereof, the figures: "($150,000)".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading, as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended, lie over for printing on final passage.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. SNOWDEN, from the Committee on Highways, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 509, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation out of the Motor License Fund to the Department of Public Instruction to promote highway safety education.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. CHAPMAN, from the Committee on Appropriations, re-reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 664, entitled:

An Act providing for the construction of a museum building; and the acquisition and maintenance by the Department of Forests and Waters with the advice of the Bushy Run Battlefield Commission, of lands adjacent to the Bushy Run Battlefield State Park; and making an appropriation.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I move that all Senate Bills reported from committees today be read for the first time. There were ten Senate bills reported from committees today, and I move they be read for the first time. I object to any House bills which were reported from committee today being read for the first time.

Mr. WOODRING. I second the motion.

On the question

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

MOTION THAT SENATE RECESS

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move the Senate do now recess for fifteen minutes, in order that a meeting may be held of the Committee on Finance, to be held in the Office of the President Pro Tempore.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I have a motion before the Senate and I press my motion.

(The Senate was at ease.)

The PRESIDENT. The Chair sustains the motion of the gentleman from Delaware, under Rule 9 of the Senate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, how did the gentleman from Delaware get the floor, when my motion was before the Senate? He did not rise on a point of inquiry or a point of information or a point of parliamentary procedure.

The PRESIDENT. For the information of the gentleman from Allegheny, it was not necessary for the gentleman from Delaware to rise on any of the points mentioned by the gentleman from Allegheny, according to the rules of the Senate, which you passed—

Mr. BARR. Pardon me, Mr. President, which the majority side passed.

The PRESIDENT. The motion of the gentleman from Delaware takes precedence over the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not want to get into a parliamentary discussion on the matter—it is not that important—but when a question is before the Senate the only manner in which it can be interrupted is by a call for the previous question for amendment, postponed, to lay on the table, commitment, or adjournment.

Mr. BARR. He did not have the floor.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, had made his motion, which was duly seconded, but before the motion could be put to the Senate by the Chair a higher motion was made, and that higher motion is going to be sustained.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I pressed for my motion before the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, got the floor.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny is correct.

Mr. BARR. If the Chair will look at the Legislative Journal, he will find that I am correct, and I still press my motion.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct, but the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Heyburn, made a motion which is higher than, and supersedes the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny. The motion of the gentleman from Delaware will be considered first.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, we understand we can not take an appeal from a decision by the Chair, we do not have the necessary votes to overrule the Chair.

We still want the record to show, however, that the question before the Senate was the question on a motion; that question could not be interrupted to make any other motion, except in the following order, which is contained in rule number No. 7, page 8, of the Senate rules; "A question regularly before the Senate (and that motion was regularly before the Senate) can be interrupted only by a call for the previous question, for amendment, postponement, to lay on the table, commitment, or adjournment." At no place does it mention a motion for recess.

However, the Chair has the power, inasmuch as the votes are not on our side.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I still press my motion because the Chair can not show me any rule—

The PRESIDENT. The Chair refers the gentleman from Allegheny to rule 9 of the Senate, which reads as follows:

"9. Motions shall take precedence in the following order:

"a. Motion to adjourn.

. Motion for the previous question.

.. Motion to take a recess...." And then, down at the end:

.A main motion."

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, we do not argue the point of order of motions, but we say the question can not be interrupted. A question was before the Senate. Rule 7 of the Senate defines when the question may be interrupted, and at no place does it say a motion to recess may interrupt a motion before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has read rule 7—which the gentleman from Westmoreland has correctly stated; and the Chair has read to the Senate rule 9—which the Chair correctly stated—and the Chair has ruled that the motion of the Senator from Delaware takes precedence over the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I submit that the Chair is entirely wrong. I submit that rule 9 applies when there is no other motion before the Senate. There was a motion before the Senate.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair may be wrong—the gentleman may appeal from the ruling by the Chair—it will not hurt the feelings of the Chair.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I know what is going on and I am trying to take positive action on these bills, not negative.

Mr. DENT. No one objects to the ruling by the Chair

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I have no objection to withdrawing my motion and voting down the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny. However, Mr. President, I submit the gentleman from Westmoreland is wrong, even if he reads rule 7—postponement—recess is a postponement, and therefore it postpones the action contemplated by the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Barr.

The PRESIDENT. Does the gentleman from Delaware withdraw his motion?

Mr. HEYBURN. Gladly.

MOTION TO RECESS WITHDRAWN

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion that the Senate do now take a recess for fifteen minutes, for a meeting of the Committee on Finance in the office of the President pro tempore.

The PRESIDENT. The question now before the Senate is a motion by the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, that all Senate Bills reported from committees today be read for the first time.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. DENT. Now, Mr. President, a motion that the Senate recess is in order.

RECESS

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for fifteen minutes, for a meeting of the Committee on Finance.

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, my motion to read all Senate Bills reported from committees today has been agreed to, but as yet the motion has not been fulfilled on the floor; the Senate bills reported from committees today have not yet been read; is that correct.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. BARR. They have not been read, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. That is right.

Mr. BARR. Therefore, Mr. President, I submit that the motion to recess just made by the gentleman from Delaware is out of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair disagrees. The gentleman from Allegheny, of course, has a right to appeal from the ruling of the Chair.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I will not appeal from the decision of the Chair; I will only appeal to the sense of fair play of the members of the Senate.

A motion was made by a member of the Senate that all Senate bills reported from committees today be read for the first time, that motion was agreed to by the Senate—yet the purpose of the motion to recess is to set aside the very effect of the motion made by the gentleman from Allegheny. We are in the ridiculous position of passing a motion to read bills for the first time and then setting aside the effect of that motion.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland is not appealing to the fairness of the Chair, as the Chair has nothing to do with it; the Chair did not make a motion that the Senate recess.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland will proceed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to the point of order that the motion to recess is entirely out of order, until the dictates of the Senate have been carried out and the provisions of the first motion are carried out.

The PRESIDENT. In the opinion of the Chair the point of order of the gentleman from Westmoreland is incorrect. In the opinion of the Chair any proper motion can be made at any time.

Mr. BARR. What is the status of my motion, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. As soon as the Senate reconvenes after recess, the motion of the gentleman from Allegheny will be carried out.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. WALKER. I understand, Mr. President, there was a point of order raised by the gentleman from Westmoreland, upon which the Chair has ruled?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. WALKER. I raise the point of order, Mr. President, that any argument with the Chair is out of order. The rules of the Senate provide the procedure which the gentleman may follow if he is not satisfied with the ruling by the Chair.

I might state, Mr. President, that this business of arguing back and forth is rather tiring to the rest of the members of the Senate and I suggest to the gentlemen that if they want to insist upon the rules, they have got to follow the proceedure as set forth in the rules.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has already stated he has no objection.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President. I agree with the gentleman from Allegheny, if the Republican majority will give us the same rights we gave them when we were in the majority. There is no point in appealing from a decision of the Chair, as we are a helpless minority, in face of the rules adopted by the majority.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I think it would be very timely to have someone recite that well known poem entitled "Crossing the bar."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion that the Senate recess?

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I have been instructed by the Committee on Finance, to report, as amended—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I did not hear unanimous consent requested to report bills from committee.

Mr. GELTZ. There was no objection, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. I did not hear anyone request unanimous consent to report bills at this time.

Mr. GELTZ. I was outside, Mr. President.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I object to bills being reported from committee at this time.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Geltz, requests unanimous consent to report bills from committee at this time. Is there objection?

Mr. BARR. I object, Mr. President.

MOTION TO SUSPEND RULE 29

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that the rule requiring unanimous consent to report bills from committee, out of order, be suspended.

Mr. KEPHART. I second the motion, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. That is rule 29.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I withdraw my motion to suspend the rule.

Mr. KEPHART. I withdraw my seconding of the motion.

MOTION THAT SENATE RETURN TO ORDER OF BUSINESS OF REPORTS FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now return to the order of business of reports from committee.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a parliamentary inquiry.

(The Senate was at ease.)

Mr. DENT. Mr. President—

Mr. BARR. Mr. President—

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has only normal vision and can not recognize everyone.

MOTION PRESSED

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I press my motion that was on the floor before recess.

The PRESIDENT. That motion has been carried. The motion was that all bills reported from committee today be read for the first time.

Mr. BARR. Senate bills only, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. That is right; Senate bills only.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Westmoreland will proceed.

Mr. DENT. My point of order, Mr. President, is that there is nothing before the Senate excepting the reading of Senate bills reported from committee today for the first time.

The PRESIDENT. At present that is correct.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Cumberland will proceed.

Mr. WADE. Mr. President, when the motion was made that Senate bills reported from Committee today be read for the first time, was there any time stipulated in the motion when the bills would be read.

The PRESIDENT. No, but that is the order of business now before the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Read the bills. There is nothing wrong with that. We do not mean to have them read at length. That is the regular order.

The PRESIDENT. That is the order of business on which the Senate is now engaged.

BILLS ON FIRST READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the first reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 786, entitled:

An Act authorizing departments, boards, commissions and agencies of the State government to make contracts for radio communication service and providing for the payment of service charges therefor.

And said bill having been read at length the first time. Ordered, To be laid aside for second reading.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, Senate Bill 509—I did not see that on the list of bills reported from committee today.

The PRESIDENT. The Clerk informs the Chair that two Senate bills were reported from commitee after the gentleman from Allegheny looked at the list.

Mr. DENT. To-night, Mr. President? Never mind, Mr. President, they are okay, very much okay.

MOTION THAT BILLS BE PREPARED FOR FIRST READING

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that all other bills reported from committee today be prepared for first reading.

Mr. BARR. I second the motion, Mr. President.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I rise on a point of information.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, have House Bills 871, 872, 936 and 1190 been reported from committee?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair will have to consult the desk; just a minute. They have not.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, at this time I report from the Committee on Finance—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. Just a minute; there is a motion before the Senate, which can either be passed or defeated.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, a motion that bills be prepared for first reading is superfluous, that is ordinary procedure.

MOTION WITHDRAWN

Mr. DENT. All right, I withdraw my motion.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President—

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I am instructed by the Committee on Finance to report—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I heard the gentleman from Westmoreland withdraw his motion but as yet I have not heard the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Barr, withdraw his seconding of the motion.

Mr. BARR. I withdraw my seconding of the motion, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. I mean if we are going to do this according to parliamentary procedure, let us do it that way.

MOTION THAT SENATE RETURN TO ORDER OF BUSINESS OF REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I move that the Senate return to the order of business of reports from committees.

Mr. TAYLOR. I second the motion, Mr. President.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BARR. I rise on a parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. BARR. Can the Chair tell me under what rule we can return now to reporting bills from committees, other than with unanimous consent.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair can state to the gentleman from Allegheny that it has been done during this whole session, and, during the preceding session, but the Chair will look up the specific rule in Jefferson's Manual, if the gentleman from Allegheny so desires.

Mr. BARR. This is my point, Mr. President—and I want a ruling on it—without unanimous consent it is my thought the Senate can not return to the order of business of reporting bills from committee.

The PRESIDENT. The motion was that the Senate return to the order of business of reports from committee, and that is a proper motion.

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the motion.

It was agreed to.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I rise on a parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The gentleman from Allegheny will proceed.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, under what rule can we return to the order of business of reporting bills from committee, without unanimous consent?

The PRESIDENT. A motion was just passed that the Senate return to the order of business of reports from committees. That was the only thing before the Senate, and that motion was passed.

The Chair now recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Geltz, he having made the motion.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I desire to report from committee.

Mr. BARR. He must ask unanimous consent.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Geltz.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. GELTZ, from the Commitee on Finance, reported as amended, House Bill No. 872, entitled:

An Act to provide revenue for State purposes by imposing an excise tax on the net income of co-operative agricultural associations having capital stock, in lieu of all other taxes except tax on real estate; providing for the assessment, collection, settlement and resettlement of tax and reviews and appeal therefrom; conferring powers and imposing duties on certain persons, co-operative agricultural associations having capital stock, State and County officers, boards, and departments; and providing penalties.

He also, from the Committee on Finance, reported as amended, House Bill No. 1190, entitled:

An Act empowering cities of the second class to levy assess and collect or to provide for the levying assessment and collection of certain additional taxes for general revenue purposes and for the reduction of taxes on real estate authorizing the establishment of bureaus and the appointment and compensation of officers and employes to assess and collect such taxes and permitting penalties to be imposed and enforced.

He also, from the Committee on Finance, reported as committed, House Bill No. 871, entitled:

An Act to further amend section twenty-seven of the act, approved the first day of June, one thousand eight hundred eighty-nine (P. L. 420), entitled "A further supplement to an act, entitled 'An act to provide revenue by taxation,' approved the seventh day of June, Anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine," further limiting the application of the section and making such further limitation retroactive.

He also, from the Committee on Finance, reported as committed, House Bill No. 936, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act, approved the twelfth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 295), entitled "A supplement to an act, entitled 'An act for the government of cities of the second class,' approved the seventh day of March, Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one; providing for the levy, collection, and disbursement of taxes and water-rents, or rates and conferring certain powers and duties in reference thereto upon the city treasurer, the board of water assessors, and the collector of delinquent taxes; and repealing certain acts relating to matters herein provided for," by fixing a limit for taxes to be levied on real estate.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I object to these bills being put on the first reading calendar because they have not been presented to the Senate under the rules of the Senate and under the rules of the Constitution of the state of Pennsylvania.

I call for a ruling by the Chair.

(The Senate was at ease.)

The PRESIDENT. What is the pleasure of the Senate?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I press the point I made, that these bills can not even be put on the Calendar to be read for the first time tomorrow, because they were not reported according to the rules of the Senate and the Constitution of the state of Pennsylvania.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Senator Heyburn.

Mr. HEYBURN. Are there any announcements by the Secretary.

The PRESIDENT. The next order of business is announcement by the Secretary.

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I would like to have a ruling—I am very sincere; I would like to have a ruling whether these bills will be allowed to be printed for the first time tomorrow.

The PRESIDENT. The answer is yes. Is what the gentleman has in his mind whether they can be read today? Is that what the gentleman has in mind.

Mr. BARR. No.

Mr. COX. Mr. President, will the Chair be so kind as to explain his rulings; on what rule of the Senate does the Chair base his opinion.

The PRESIDENT. There is no motion before the Chair of which the Chair is aware.

Mr. COX. The gentleman made a motion.

The PRESIDENT. What was it?

Mr. COX. The gentleman from Allegheny raised the parliamentary inquiry that the bill was not properly passed as read.

May I amend my statement by saying the gentleman stated the bills were improperly reported from committee.

The PRESIDENT. They were reported from committee

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now adjourn until Wednesday, May 2, 1945, at 3:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern War Time.

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The Senate adjourned at 11:59 o'clock p. m., Eastern War Time until Wednesday, May 2, 1945, at 3:00 o'clock p. m., Eastern War Time.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, May 1, 1945

The House met at 1:30 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Ira T. Fiss) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Lester C. Updegrove, offered the following prayer:

Our Heavenly Father, we turn to Thee in this day of our great need. There is no other to whom we can go. Thou who art a way-making God, do Thou use the San Francisco conference to make a way of permanent peace, good-will and cooperation amongst all the nations of the world.

Remember our House of Representatives in faithfully discharging their responsibilities to Thee and to those who have entrusted them with the challenging work at hand. May the work done accomplish much good for all our citizenry. We offer our prayer in the name of Him "who went about doing good," Jesus Christ. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Monday, April 30, 1945.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Monday, April 30, 1945, when, on motion of Mr. POLASKI unanimously agreed to, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

COMMUNICATION AND BILL TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. KOLANKIEWICZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication from the Governor together with House Bill No. 374, which was laid on the table April 17, 1945, be taken from the table.

The motion was agreed to.

The communication was read by the Clerk as follows:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 374

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 12, 1945.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Concurrent Resolution recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 374, Printer's No. 446, for the purpose of further consideration.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

EDWARD MARTIN.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. KOLANKIEWICZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kolankiewicz, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. KOLANKIEWICZ. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

Mr. KOLANKIEWICZ. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. KOLANKIEWICZ. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend page 1, last line of the title, by adding at the end thereof the following: "in certain cases".

Amend page 2, section 1, line 16, by striking out with bold face brackets, after the word "county", the following: "[in which a decreased service per-]".

Amend page 2, section 1, line 17, by striking out with bold face brackets, before the word "upon," the following: "[son is buried]".

Amend page 2, section 1, line 18, by striking out with bold face brackets, after the word "of" and before the word "any", the symbol: "[[ ]".

Amend page 2, section 1, line 18, by striking out with bold face brackets, after the word "any" and before the word "deceased", the following: "[ ] such]".

Amend page 2, section 1, line 18, by striking out after the word "person" and before the word "who", the symbol: "[[ ]".

Amend page 2, section 1, line 20, by striking out, with bold face brackets, after the word "county" and before the word "on", the symbol: "[ ]]".

Amend page 3, section 1, line 14, by striking out with bold face brackets, after the word "person", the following: "[is buried without regard to the county in which]."

Amend page 3, section 1, line 15, by striking out with bold face brackets, before the word "had", the following: "[he or she]".

Amend page 3, section 1, line 16, by striking out with bold face brackets, after the word "death" and before the word "whether", the word: "[or]".

Amend page 3, section 1, line 17, by striking out with bold face brackets, after the word "county" and before the word "and", the symbol: "[[ ]".

Amend page 3, section 1, line 18, by striking out with bold face brackets, after the word "county" and before the word "Provided", the symbol: "[ ]]".

Amend page 3, section 1, line 26, by inserting after the word "tablet" and before the word "No", the following: "Provided, however, That in cases of dispute concerning the legal residence of a deceased service person the county in which a deceased service person is buried shall perform the duties hereinbefore set forth."

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the offering of amendments at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Professional Licensure to meet during the session of the House.

ROSEMONT COLLEGE STUDENTS WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair welcomes to the House this afternoon, a group of Political Science Students from Rosemont College and their teacher Miss Melanie Stark.

We are pleased to have you as our guests, and hope you will come back again.

The first second and third articles were separately read and agreed to.

The fourth article was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the article?

Mr. COSTA offered the following amendment:

Amend sec. 402, page 9, line 27, by striking out the figure "(3%)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(4%)".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Costa.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. COSTA. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire of the gentleman from Philadelphia as to what the purpose of these amendments is and what they mean to this very noble piece of legislation.

Mr. COSTA. On page 9, Mr. Speaker, line 27, we have stricken out the figure three percent and inserted four percent so that the state may have an additional one percent.

Mr. LEVY. I would like to inquire of the gentlemen, Mr. Speaker, the increase of one percent on page 9, will the gentleman from Philadelphia tell the Members of the House what net revenue that would yield?

Mr. COSTA. That would yield about twenty-five million dollars to the State, Mr. Speaker.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

The article was agreed to as amended.

The fifth article was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the article?

Mr. COSTA offered the following amendments:

Amend sec. 502, page 12, line 1, by striking out the word "eight" and inserting in lieu thereof "six".

Amend sec. 502, page 12, line 1, by striking out the figure "(8%)" and inserting in lieu thereof "(6%)".

Amend sec. 502, page 12, lines 2 to 7, both inclusive, by striking out all of said lines.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman explain the amendments to Section 502 on page 12 then.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Delaware will state it.

Mr. TURNER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Levy, is apparently wearing his spurs.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. The spurs are on.

Mr. COSTA. Section 502, page 12, line 1, by striking out the word eight and inserting six so that track gets only two percent. You can have the peanut concession. You can start a hock shop just outside the track.

Mr. LEVY. Now that the shooting is over, Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. Who won the race?

Mr. LEVY. It was a dead heat.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were agreed to.

The article as amended was agreed to.

The sixth, seventh and eighth articles and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 717, Printer's No. 500, was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

PERMISSION GRANTED COMMITTEE TO MEET DURING SESSION

Mr. DALRYMPLE asked and obtained permission for the Committee on Elections to meet during the session of the House.

BILLS ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 649, as follows:

An Act to amend section seven of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1780) entitled "An act to fix the salaries and compensation of the judges of Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphans' courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County" by increasing the salaries of judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia

Section 1 Section seven of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1780) entitled "An act to fix the salaries and compensation of the judges of Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphans' courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 7 The annual salary of the President Judge of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia shall be [ten thousand five hundred dollars ($10,500)] thirteen thousand dollars ($13,000) and the annual salary of each of the other judges of said court shall be [ten thousand dollars ($10,000)] twelve thousand five hundred dollars ($12,500)

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate one of the many sponsors of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will one of the many sponsors of the bill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROSE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose, what the present salary is of the Judges of the Municipal Court in Philadelphia.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, they are presently inadequately paid at the rate of ten thousand dollars per annum.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire of the gentleman by what amount of money there will be an increase in the salaries of these judges by the passage of this particular piece of legislation.

Mr. ROSE. I am sorry I cannot hear the gentleman. Will he please repeat?

Mr. LEVY. I desire to know from the gentleman from Philadelphia what amount of increase will be accorded these judges after the passage of this bill.

Mr. ROSE. They will receive salaries of twelve thousand dollars per annum.

Mr. LEVY. I desire to further interrogate the gentleman as to what reason may be offered at the present time for increasing the salaries of the judges of this court.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, most of the present members of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia have been appointed or elected to those posts at a time when the Federal Income Tax Law did not apply to them. They represent the best legal brains and talent in Philadelphia. Many of the men went on the bench at a great sacrifice, and at that time they realized—they felt at least that they would have enough income of the ten thousand dollars per year. Since then of course the tax rate being what it is and the substantial payments that they must make to the pension fund, their salaries have been reduced to a point well below that which men of their standing should have. Now, it has been my contention, as the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, pointed out a week or so ago, when there was another bill being discussed on the floor of this House, that you cannot obtain proper men to serve as members of the judiciary unless you compensate them adequately and if we want to appeal to the better type men to serve in the judicial branch of our government we ought to see that they are properly compensated for their efforts.

Mr. LEVY. I desire to inquire of the gentleman from Philadelphia as to whether or not he was a Member of the Legislature in the 1937 Session?

Mr. ROSE. I was not, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LEVY. I might inquire of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Speaker, if any one of the co-sponsors of the bill were Members of the Legislature in the 1937 session?

Mr. ROSE. I do not know, sir.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia probably has a lapse of memory, but I might remind him that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Skale, was a Member of the Legislature in that session. Is he in the hall of the House?

Mr. ROSE. He is not at the present moment, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LEVY. Is the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Skale in the hall of the House?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is not in the hall of the House.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I would then inquire of the gentleman from Philadelphia further, as to whether or not the same high type of legal talent is not on the Common Pleas Court of Philadelphia?

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I am happy to report that the men who serve on the bench in the Common Pleas Courts in Philadelphia are well regarded by all the members of the bar as well as the general public. I believe that those who have been appointed, some of whom have been appointed by his present Excellency, Governor Martin, and others represent the finest of the legal talent available.

Mr. LEVY. I might ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Speaker, as to what increase in salary is offered to these honorable persons in House Bill 648?

Mr. ROSE. They too will receive an increase of two thousand dollars per annum.

Mr. LEVY. Making a total then of fourteen thousand dollars per year?

Mr. ROSE. That is not so. I think the gentleman has not correctly read the bill, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, what is the present salary then, may I ask the gentleman, of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas in Philadelphia?

Mr. ROSE. The present Judges of the Courts of Common Pleas of Philadelphia receive a salary of fourteen thousand dollars a year now.

Mr. LEVY. Then their increase is up to sixteen thousand dollars a year?

Mr. ROSE. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LEVY. And that of course is granted to them in this bill because of their high legal standing in Philadelphia?

Mr. ROSE. For one thing. I have enumerated other reasons that the gentleman probably heard.

Mr. LEVY. I want to thank the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. Speaker, I hesitate to say this, but it comes with bad taste for Democratic Members of the Assembly, who at least were present in the 1937 Session of the Legislature when this same Municipal Court in Philadelphia was under legislative attack, and it was decided then in the best judgment of the party in power that this court should then become dissolved and a new system of court procedure handling these matters be taken over by the creation of a new court entirely. I say to you, Mr. Speaker, that I am one of the Democratic Members of the House who was also a Member in 1937 and up until this point I have not changed my mind concerning the Municipal Court in Philadelphia. If in 1937 the Municipal Court in Philadelphia was not performing a duty for the people of Philadelphia becoming its high office, then I say to you it comes with bad grace that they should now be having sponsored for them an increase in salary for the same individual judges with a few minor exceptions.

I say to you further, Mr. Speaker, that this is a bad time for legislators to come to the defense of jurists who now plead that their income tax is beyond the capacity of their salaries when there are other hard workers and professional leaders in Philadelphia and throughout the Commonwealth for whom we do not legislate in this capacity. I appeal to you, and I urge every Republican Member and every Democratic Member to vote down these two bills.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Levy.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. LEVY. I shall.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, perhaps I derived the wrong innuendo from the gentleman's words, but I would like to ask the gentleman if in his opinion the present members o fthe Municipal Court in Philadelphia are incompetent and are improperly performing their duties?

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I have answered that question, I think, very satisfactorily when I said that ever since 1937 when I voted with the majority to dissolve the said court I have not as yet changed my opinion.

Mr. ROSE. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I listened with considerable interest to the gentleman from Philadelphia, and I am somewhat amazed at his assertions made here today. It seems to me that the problem that this bill attempts to solve is not one of a partisan nature.

The gentleman has indicated that he is surprised at the fact that three Democratic sponsors are attempting to raise the salaries of the judges in Philadelphia. Most of the judges, I believe, as you well know, are and have been elected upon the Republican ticket. Regardless of that fact, I think that they have served ably and well, and most of them, when they donned the role and went on the bench have forgotten partisan politics and have accepted the role of judges. I feel that they have done an excellent job in that capacity, and there is no need for criticism, there is no cause for criticism because we happen to be Democrats.

I think that the problem was ably presented to this House, as I have intimated before, by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner, a few weeks ago. It is not a question of whether or not these gentlemen are to be given a raise whereas possibly other men are neglected. The main point we must stress here is this, are we going to get on our bench men who are competent and able, men who are decent and men who perform their duties properly.

The position of the judges in Philadelphia is somewhat different from that of the judges in other counties. In Philadelphia they must maintain, when they are members of the bench, certain high standards of living, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Levy, well knows that there are many attorneys in Philadelphia, many attorneys not anywhere nearly as competent as men who are now sitting on the bench who are paid salaries well in excess of what the judges get. He well knows that many of these judges have assumed the bench and assumed the robes given to them at a great personal sacrifice to themselves. I think we here in the House, under our form of government, look toward having an independent and competent judiciary, and we should adequately reward them. I say that the men who are at all familiar with the problems faced by our judges cannot hesitate to go ahead and give the much needed increase provided for in this bill.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. Speaker, the argument that the judges in Philadelphia have to live on a scale different than other people does not appeal to me in the slightest degree, because all people must live within their means. The argument that the judges in Philadelphia have to pay an income tax does not appeal to me at all. The argument that they have to pay into the pension fund does not appeal to me at all, because that is money saving and money in their pockets. As far as the income tax is concerned, it is the patriotic duty of a man whether he wields a pick and shovel or whether he is in high office, to do his share toward paying that income tax in order that eventually victory and peace may come to this country of ours.

But I am in favor of this bill because of the institution and because of the men that man it. It comes with ill grace for anyone to question the fairness of this bill, because in 1937 a Democratic organization tried to set up judges of their own to displace those who were elected regularly by the people, and put their own people in power. They tried it but they failed, and these men down in the Municipal Court of Philadelphia are still working. The Municipal Court of Philadelphia is the model court of its kind in the world. I am not saying for a city, but for the world. It takes care of dependent widows, it takes care of juveniles, it takes care of the morality of the city, it takes care of any number of civil and criminal cases and does more work than any court of its kind in the country.

In 1943 they handled a total of 51,854 cases. Those cases were handled on juvenile delinquency, custody of children, adoption of children, family discord, unmarried mothers in addition to various forms of litigation that come to the small courts and other courts in which the plain people's interest must be taken care of.

Personally, Mr. Speaker, I hope what I am about to say, that it will not come true. We are now at the apex of income in the state of Pennsylvania. What the future has in store for us no one knows. I think it is high time that we stop, look and listen to the various expenditures in this state. When the boys come home will there be lack of employment—all the money that we might be able to save in Pennsylvania will not be sufficient for the time to come to meet the emergency.

That is the picture I see, and I hope I am one hundred per cent wrong and that those things will not happen, but if they do happen and we have that money in the treasury we can take care of those emergencies at the proper time and the proper place. If we do not have it there will be depression and hardship and all the things that lead to human misery. I hope I am wrong, but we have been very extravagant in this session and I hope that we will wise up in the near future and come to the conclusion that a treasury that has money to spend is far more important to this Commonwealth than an empty treasury that will not be able to help out those we want to take care of. I say to you men and to all the men in this Commonwealth, stop, look and listen. You have plenty of time now; it may be too late three or four years from now.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, after spending four sessions here in Harrisburg I find myself for the first time in accord with Mr. Levy. I hope that before the session ends I may have the pleasure of being in accord with him again.

This is the second in a series of judicial relief bills. I learned in the debate the other week that we should call them equalization or readjustment bills, and nothing so crude as salary raisers. Now, I have to take a position antagonistic to the three eminent legal gentlemen from Philadelphia. They should know the impecunious position of the judiciary there—and I have a heart. If they really are in such difficulties I am willing to bring in an amendment raising their salaries five dollars a month or even ten dollars a month, the same as we raised the salaries of the various employes here in the House. But gentlemen, despite the argument of these three learned gentlemen, Chief Justice Maxey has said that these judicial raises are altogether wrong, and certainly he should be an authority.

I want to read you a piece of poetry, and I want to say that I am not the author of it. I am not like that eminent critic from Delaware County who can at a glance tell a jingle from a jangle. This poem is not from the pen of the Poet Laureate of the Poconos, Mr. Wayne, of Dix—or Mr. Dix of Wayne—I never could get that straight. This poem is a product of one of the gentlemen who represents the Philadelphia press, and of course therefore it must be good, and if you will bear with me I will read it. The title is "Let's Beware". I think it is a paraphrase on the immortal saying of the Democratic Whip on the other side, "Let's Be Fair":

We may someday face the jurist
In the Court of Common Pleas;
We may tremble there before him,
Palsied hands and shaking knees;
Vainly will we lift our voices
And deny the taint of guilt;
He won't ask us how we voted
On the school bill or the silt;
He will say "You cut my wages
By the way you voted there."
Heed the Judge, who loudly rages,— Let's Beware, Let's Beware!

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to call the attention of the House to the fact that a schedule of compensation was passed in this House in 1929. In 1929 the compensation for the municipal judges as well as the common pleas court judges was fixed. That is a period of almost sixteen years. In those days it is common knowledge that the cost of living was at least thirty to forty per cent less. In addition to that, since that time, and I do not know for how many years, the judges have been obliged or required to pay an income tax. These men must maintain a certain standard of living. They carry great responsibility. We expect them to maintain their position in life with dignity. These men have to rear families just like you and I. It is only fair that we give these men a good compensation. If you do not it will mean that a man must be a rich man in order to occupy the position of judge, and many a man who is able and capable and of fine integrity could not afford to take that position to serve the people unless they were properly compensated. Our judges in Philadelphia are men of learning and ability; they render very good service. The municipal court, as was well said, is one of the best courts of its kind in the world. I want to urge the members of the House to vote for this bill.

Mr. CULLEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROSE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CULLEN. Did I understand the gentleman from Philadelphia during the interrogation by Mr. Levy to say that the increase in compensation in this bill was $2,000?

Mr. ROSE. I believe I did, Mr. Speaker, but I was in error. It is twenty-five hundred dollars.

Mr. CULLEN. It is twenty-five hundred dollars instead of two thousand dollars?

Mr. ROSE. The Municipal Court judges, yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CULLEN. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, I just want to call to the attention of the Members of the House that the increase is twenty-five hundred dollars instead of two thousand dollars of a raise. My heart bleeds for these poor judges, no question about that. As one judge said to me, or wrote me in a letter, "Is there no pity for the judges?" He also intimated in his letter, the effect on the quality it would have on the judges. I think that would be a very good idea in Philadelphia if the quality was changed. Ten thousand dollars a year is a lot of dough, even in Philadelphia. There are a good many of us who get along very well on much less than that, and no one pities us, nor do we ask for pity. Those gentlemen who sit on the bench and find such a tough time getting along on ten thousand dollars a year, they can go and do like I do. They only work three or four hours a day—they can go into a defense plant and make up the difference and they will be doing a very patriotic duty for the country. The fact of the matter is, in my opinion, in Philadelphia we have entirely too many judges and they are paid entirely too much now. It seems that poetry is the order of the day, so one of my colleagues on this side has composed a little piece of poetry and I will ask your indulgence while I read it. It is entitled "Our Poor Judges:"

Over the hill to the Poor House they trudge their weary way,
At the age of seventy and only a trifle gray.
They who are smart and chipper for all the year there told,
As many another man that's only half as old.

Over the Hill to the poorhouse they make it quite clear,
Over the Hill to the Poor House is why this horrid fear
Many a step they have taken giving judgment high and low,
But this sort of Journey they never thought they'd go.

What's the use of heapin' on them a pauper's shame?
They are not lazy or crazy nor blind or lame,
True they're still quite supple and not so awfully stout,
But why give them charity if they can live without?

Is this Legislature willing and ready
To parcel out the dough, ample and steady
For our underpaid Judges whom some taxpayers condemn
Are we to increase their salaries this Poor House ride to stem?

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Rose.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ROSE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Philadelphia I understand stated that the purpose of this bill to increase the judges' salaries was so that they could pay their additional Federal income tax.

Mr. ROSE. No, Mr. Speaker, I did not so state. I pointed out to the gentleman that at the time many of the members of the judiciary went on the bench in Philadelphia the Federal income tax law exempted them from payment of the tax, but under a decision of the United States Supreme Court the members of the judiciary are not so exempted any longer, and that those men who went on the bench at that time probably considered that they were getting a nice net income, consequently made whatever sacrifices were necessary and they went on the bench knowing that they could live within the income limits.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, didn't the gentleman give away a little secret about that fact? I had it on pretty good authority that the only reason these judges want this increase is to pay this Federal income tax.

Mr. ROSE. In reply to that, may I interrogate the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Dix, Mr. Speaker?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Wayne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DIX. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. Did I understand the gentleman to say he has it on good authority that the only reason they were taking this increase was because they wanted to be able to pay this Federal income tax?

Mr. DIX. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROSE. I would like to have the authority upon which the gentleman makes that stateement.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I wouldn't want to give the name away, only it was a judge that told me.

Mr. ROSE. A judge from Philadelphia?

Mr. DIX. And I also say that a Democratic judge from Pittsburgh that was here a few weeks ago said that he was not in favor of this increase—a former Member of the House.

Mr. ROSE. That may be so, Mr. Speaker. I wish to point out to the gentleman in reply to his interrogation that insofar as I know, no judges have indicated to me that the reason they wanted the increase was that they wanted to pay Federal income tax. As a matter of fact I have not been approached by any of the judges on this matter. I just felt that due to the fact that conditions have changed considerably and due to the standing of the members of the bench, that this was a feasible time when the Legislature should increase their salaries.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, didn't I understand the gentleman from Philadelphia to say that the reason for increasing this salary was on account of having a higher standard of the Judiciary?

Mr. ROSE. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Philadelphia how much the Secretary of the Commonwealth gets, and how much the Secretary of Agriculture gets?

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I am not certain, but I think about ten thousand dollars per annum.

Mr. DIX. And how much salary does the Attorney General get?

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, he too gets ten thousand dollars.

Mr. DIX. And may I ask how much all the members of the Cabinet get?

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I believe they get ten thousand dollars, but I might point out to the gentleman that the Attorney General is permitted to practice law in addition to that, and I dare say that a man of his high standing at the bar earns considerably more than his salary by his practice, where as a Member of the Bench gives up the practice of law.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, it seems to me that when the members of the Governor's Cabinet receive only ten thousand dollars a year and they do not come into the House and aks the taxpayers of Pennsylvania to pay their Federal income and surtax, there is no reason for the Judges of Philadelphia to come into the House and ask the House to assist them in paying their income and surtax, and I understand that that is the only reason that they ask this increase.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman has the wrong impression. The reason is not to get an increase to pay the Federal tax. The Federal tax, of course, is something that will increase or decrease. We are hoping that after this war is over the Federal tax will be decreased, but they are not seeking that, as I indicated before. The reason for the increase is that we want decent, competent and capable men to go on the bench. I might also point out to the gentlemen that judges in other States are paid immeasurably higher amounts than our judges in Pennsylvania, men not of as good standing nor of as good qualifications as our Pennsylvania judges are.

Mr. DIX. May I now inquire also whether the judiciary in a great many other States are not paid considerably less?

Mr. ROSE. There may be some backward States, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DIX. Not some backward states, but there are many States.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I do know that in New York State the judges of what are known as the Supreme Court there, which is a Court of lower jurisdiction, that have jurisdiction some where between a Magistrate and Justice of the Peace and our Municipal Court have salaries of twenty-five thousand dollars per annum.

Mr. DIX. Just one other question, Mr. Speaker. How did it happen that three Democrats sponsored this bill from Philadelphia?

Mr. ROSE. How did it happen? My reply to the interrogation of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Levy, indicated that I did not consider this a purely political measure. It so happens that my co-sponsors and I discussed this problem, and it was approved by the co-sponsors and I asked if there was any objection to my coming along, because I thought it was one of the things that should be met and for that reason I was one of the co-sponsors.

Mr. DIX. Is it not true, Mr. Speaker, that there was some horse trading between the Democrats and some of the Republicans?

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I don't know of any such horse trading. I would like to point out that most of the judges of Philadelphia are members of the Republican Party. They were so elected, but that is not a criterion, because when they go on the bench they forget politics.

Mr. DIX. That is all I have, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I find myself in somewhat of a peculiar position again. During the last Session of the Legislature I had a dear old uncle down in Philadelphia whom they were trying to deprive of the vote, and I promptly came to the rescue of that dear old fellow. Now I find we have another bill that applies to Philadelphia, and this dear old uncle of mine has a son that might be a judge someday, and I am going to be fair and work for his interests today.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The roll was called.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears no seconds. Does the gentleman insist upon a verification of the roll?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I asked for a verification of the roll.

The SPEAKER. The Chair did not hear the required number of seconds. The Chair also understood that the gentleman withdrew his request for a verification of the roll.

PARLIAMENTRY INQUIRY

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. CHUDOFF. What happens, Mr. Speaker, when a Member under the Rules of the House asks for a verification of the roll, and he has the necessary seconds, is it not necessary to verify the roll?

The SPEAKER. If three members request a verification the roll will be verified, otherwise it will not be verified.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, that was done, and I ask you now to have the gentleman who takes care of the microphones, have them in order so that you can hear what the Members have to say to you.

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker, I don't think the question as to whether there were three seconds is in proper order. I heard the Speaker distinctly ask the maker of the request if he insisted upon it, and he walked away from the microphone without insisting. I think the Chair is in order.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I did insist upon a verification of the roll in spite of the fact that I did not have the punch and the tones that the gentleman from Philadelphia has. I thought the Chair might have heard it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair was definitely under the impression that the gentleman did not insist.

Mr. ROSE. I had insisted. Mr. Speaker, and you probably did not hear it.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, after the 1943 session and after this session I thought I never would see the day when the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Levy, would rise in defense of the Chair. It is overwelming.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 648, as follows:

An Act to further amend section four of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1780) entitled "An act to fix the salaries and compensation of the judges of Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphans' courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County" by increasing the salaries of judges of common pleas of the first and fifth judicial districts

Section 1 Section four of the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1780) entitled "An act to fix the salaries and compensation of the judges of Supreme Court the judges of the Superior Court the judges of the courts of common pleas the judges of the orphans' courts the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court of Allegheny County" as amended by the act approved the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 317) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 4 The annual salary of each of the judges of the courts of common pleas of the first and fifth judicial districts shall be [fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000)] sixteen thousand dollars ($16,000)

The annual salary of each of the judges of the courts of common pleas learned in the law in judicial districts having a population of more than two hundred and fifty thousand and less than one million inhabitants shall be twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) in judicial districts having a population of one hundred thousand and more but less than two hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants shall be twelve thousand dollars ($12,000) in judicial districts having a population of sixty-five thousand or more and less than one hundred thousand inhabitants shall be ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in judicial districts having a population of less than sixty-five thousand inhabitants shall be nine thousand dollars ($9,000) The amounts of the salaries to be paid under this paragraph in the respective judicial districts shall be determined and fixed according to the population of such districts as ascertained by reference from time to time to the last preceding decennial United States census

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I do not desire to take up the time of the House with another long debate on this bill. However, I would like to call to the attention of the House that this judges pay raise bill is not a Philadelphia bill only, but also takes in the judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County. On April 16, 1945 the Allegheny County Bar Association unanimously endorsed House Bill 648 for their judges.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Messrs. Rose, Skale and Herman asked for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verified and was as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 138, as follows:

An Act authorizing the establishment construction and maintenance of limited access highways and local service highways and providing for closing certain highways providing for the taking of private property and for the payment of damages therefor providing for sharing the costs involved and for the control of traffic thereover providing penalties and making an appropriation

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 For the purposes of this act a limited access highway is defined as a public highway to which owners or occupants of abutting property or the traveling public have no right of ingress or egress to from or across such highway except as may be provided by the authorities responsible therefor A local service highway is defined as a public highway either existing or new or combination thereof parallel or approximately parallel to the limited access highway which will provide ingress or egress to or from highways or areas which would otherwise be isolated by the construction or establishment of a limited access highway

Section 2 (a) The Secretary of Highways with the approval of the Governor is hereby authorized to declare any State highway route or part thereof now or hereafter established to be a limited access highway

(b) Whenever the establishment of a limited access highway will facilitate the movement of traffic the Secretary of Highways with the approval of the Governor is hereby authorized to lay out new highways take over existing highways or parts thereof and declare the same to be a limited access highway to be constructed and maintained as a State highway

(c) The authorities of any political subdivision of the Commonwealth are hereby authorized to declare any existing or new highway or part thereof now or hereafter under their jurisdiction and control to be a limited access highway and to construct and maintain the same

(d) The designation of a limited access highway in a city by either the Secretary of Highways or by the commissioners of the county in which the city is located shall be subject to the approval of the city as evidenced by an ordinance duly passed in accordance with the law

Section 3 The Secretary of Highways with the approval of the Governor or local authorities in connection with the designation or construction of a limited access highway may lay out or construct local service highways

Section 4 In the establishment or construction of limited access highways the authorities responsible therefor shall have the power to eliminate intersections at grade with other highways by the construction of grade separation structures by the closing of such intersecting highways at the right of way lines of the limited access highway or by relocating such intersecting highways as in their discretion will best serve the public interest

Section 5 Where the Secretary of Highways proceeds under the authority of this act he shall have authority to construct and maintain any tunnel bridge culvert drainage structure or other structure or appurtenances incidental thereto other than sanitary sewers as may be necessary in the construction of the limited access highway Provided however that the Secretary of Highways shall have authority to replace reconstruct or restore existing sanitary sewers

L. 202) and by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 683) respectively are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted &c That the following words and phrases as used in this act unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context shall have the following meanings

* * * * *

6 "State employe" shall mean any person holding a State office or position under the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania employed and paid on a yearly or monthly basis by the State Government of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in any capacity whatsoever and shall include also any attorney solicitor investigator appraiser and clerk employed by the year or by the month in the office of any register of wills howsoever appointed whose compensation is actually paid from Commonwealth moneys and shall also include all judges of the several courts of this Commonwealth whose salaries are paid by the Commonwealth and also all clerks and secretaries employed by judges and paid on a yearly or monthly basis by such judges from moneys appropriated by the Commonwealth for such purposes and also all officers and employes of the Pennsylvania State College paid on a yearly or monthly basis other than those paid wholly from Federal funds and also all officers and employes of the Delaware River Joint Commission and of the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission paid on a yearly or monthly basis if the Delaware River Joint Commission and the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission shall agree to contribute and contributes to the State Employes' Retirement Fund from time to time the moneys required to build up the reserves necessary for the payment of the State annuities of such officers and employes without any liability on the part of the Commonwealth to make appropriations for such purposes and also but only for the purposes of this act all officers and employes of any separate independent public corporation created by act of Assembly (not including however any municipal or quasi-municipal corporation) who immediately prior to their employment by such public corporation were employes of the Commonwealth so long as they remain officers or employes of such public corporation if such public corporation shall agree to contribute and contributes to the State Employes' Retirement Fund from time to time the money required to build up the reserve necessary for the payment of the State annuities of such officers and employes without any liability on the part of the Commonwealth to make appropriations for such purposes But the term "State employe" shall not include those persons defined as employes in section one paragraph seven of the act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. 1043) entitled "An act establishing a public school employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing employes defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon boards having the employment of public school employes exempting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" as amended by section one paragraph seven of the act approved the twenty-first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 245) excepting such officers and employes of the Department of Public Instruction as are not members of or who may withdraw from the public school employes' retirement association provided by said act and no member shall be deprived of credit for prior service as a State employe because of the fact that such service was rendered while he or she was a member of the public school employes' retirement association

The term "State employes" shall also include all State officers and employes regularly employed by the year or by the month at a fixed annual or monthly compensation when the General Assembly is not in session but who during a legislative session instead of a fixed annual or monthly salary or compensation are paid upon a per diem basis or by a fixed salary or compensation from the legislative session

Employes of the respective institutions acquired by the Commonwealth from counties cities wards boroughs townships institution districts and other political subdivisions that are actually used as State mental hospitals under the provisions of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of September one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight (P. L. 53) or its amendments shall for the purposes of this act be deemed to have been "State employes" from the time they first entered the employ of such institution even though the same may have been prior to the acquisition of the institution by the Commonwealth if such employe shall pay to the retirement association a sum equal to all the back payments which such employe would have made had he or she become a member of the retirement association at the time he or she was first employed by such institution Such back payments may be spread over a period of years by having the regular payroll deduction of such employe increased by not less than one-third of the amount thereof which deduction increase shall be credited to such back payments owing and shall be continued until the amount thereof shall be paid in full unless such member is retired under the provisions of this act before such back payments have been completed Any such deduction increase may be anticipated in full by the member at any time and shall be anticipated in full at the time of retirement before a retirement allowance is granted If not so anticipated then the member's annuity shall be calculated on the total accumulated deductions standing to his credit and his State annuity shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the reduction which occurs in the member's annuity due to the amount of the back payments not so anticipated

In all cases of doubt the retirement board shall determine whether any person is a State employe as defined in this paragraph and its decision shall be final

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1138, as follows:

An Act to preserve the purity of the waters of the Commonwealth and to regulate the sealing of coal mines providing for the sealing of coal mines by the Sanitary Water Board and the payment of the costs thereof by the Commonwealth in certain cases conferring powers and imposing duties on the Sanitary Water Board and the Department of Mines imposing duties on the owners operators and lessees of coal mines and imposing penalties

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 It shall be unlawful for any owner operator or lessee of any coal mine to abandon the same or any worked out portion thereof without first notifying the Sanitary Water Board thirty (30) days prior to such abandonment

It shall be the duty of every owner operator or lessee of any abandoned coal mine to seal or cause to be sealed the entries shafts surface breaks and such portions of the outcrop as will admit air to said mine such sealing to be done in accordance with the directions of the Sanitary Water Board after consultation with the Department of Mines

It shall be the duty of every owner operator or lessee of any worked out portion of any coal mine to seal or cause to be sealed the entries shafts surface breaks and such portions of the outcrop as will admit air to such worked out portion when in the opinion of the Sanitary Water Board after consultation with the Department of Mines it has been found practical so to do such sealing to be done in accordance with the directions of the Sanitary Water Board after consultation with the Department of Mines

Section 2 If any owner operator or lessee of any abandoned coal mine or of any worked out portion of a coal mine not yet abandoned shall fail neglect or refuse to seal or cause to be sealed the openings of said mine or worked out portion of a mine within sixty (60) days after the abandonment thereof it shall be the duty of the Sanitary Water Board to enter upon the premises where the entries shafts surface breaks and portions of outcrop are located and to seal the same The cost of such sealing by the Sanitary Water Board shall be collected by the board from the owner operator or lessee of the mine so sealed in the manner provided by law

Where any coal mine has been abandoned before the effective date of this act it shall be the duty of the owner operator or lessee thereof to seal or cause to be sealed the entries shafts surface breaks and such portions of the outcrop as will admit air to said mine within sixty (60) days after notice so to do by the Sanitary

Water Board such sealing to be done in accordance with the directions of the Sanitary Water Board after consultation with the Department of Mines

Section 3 When the owner operator or lessee of any abandoned coal mine or their whereabouts are unknown the Sanitary Water Board is authorized to enter upon the premises where the entries shafts surface breaks and portions of outcrop are located and to seal the same

Section 4 The cost of the sealing done by the Sanitary Water Board under the provisions of section three of this act shall be paid by the Commonwealth from appropriations made to the Department of Health for such purpose or from other moneys made available for such purpose by the Commonwealth or the United States of America

Section 5 Any owner operator or lessee of any coal mine who violates any of the provisions of this act shall upon conviction thereof be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500) nor more than five thousand dollars ($5000) and shall be sentenced to undergo imprisonment for a period not exceeding one (1) year or both

Section 6 The act approved the seventh day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 141) entitled "An act to preserve the purity of the waters of the Commonwealth and to avoid the danger of fire by requiring the owners operators and lessees of abandoned bituminous coal mines and workings to seal the entries and air shafts thereof and conferring powers upon the Department of Mines to carry into effect the provisions of this act" is hereby repealed together with all other acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know just what the effect of this bill is, what the costs are, who pays what and why.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the sponsor of the bill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I not only want to interrogate him. I want him to explain the bill, as I said who pays what and why.

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Cambria what part of the bill he wants explained.

Mr. ANDREWS. The whole bill. Under what conditions do you seal, who pays the costs of the seal, what are the provisions of the act and what is the bill intended to do?

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Cambria if he wants to know the ceiling price also.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I am not rising in a spirit of levity. I have read this bill and I do not understand it. I think every Member of this House has a right to know what the bill does, what its purpose is, what its costs are, whom it helps and why it helps them.

Mr. COOK. Mr. Speaker, this is an administration bill, written by the Department of Justice. As I understand, the Department of Mines and Mining, under the supervision of the Sanitary Water Board, pays the costs of the supervision, pay the costs of the sealing of mines that have been abandoned and the location of the parties who opened the mines and abandoned them and are not available to pay the costs, or cannot be located to be made to pay the costs for the sealing of abandoned mines.

Mr. ANDREWS. Does the owner or the operator pay the costs of sealing the abandoned mines, or does the State pay them?

Mr. COOK. The owner and operator, as I understand, pay the costs of sealing the mines which are abandoned, wherever available.

Mr. ANDREWS. Do I understand that under this bill in an abandoned mine the cost of sealing that mine rests upon the owner, whereas under House Bill 1 if you want to pollute the stream the State pays it?

I would suggest, Mr. Speaker, that we temporarily pass over this bill until the sponsor finds out what the purpose of the bill is and what the effects are.

Mr. COOK. I am satisfied, Mr. Speaker, to let it go over for a day.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I just wanted to reply to the gentleman from Cambria. I understand that this bill would obligate the operator or the owner to pay the costs of sealing the abandoned mines. If there is no work done in this particular mine and the Sanitary Water Board would be required to go in and seal the abandoned coal mine, such costs would be borne by the Commonwealth out of funds provided to the Department of Health, the appropriation to the Department of Health.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Lehigh whether the sealing must be done irrespective of whether the mine drainage goes into a polluted or non-polluted stream? Is there any distinction?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. No, Mr. Speaker, there is not. As I just described the abandoned mine, it says that the abandoned mine shall be sealed by the operator, and when the operator is not known the Sanitary Water Board has the right to enter the premises and seal the mine. In such event the cost is then borne by the Commonwealth out of the appropriation to the Department of Health.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, would this apply to a portion of the work that has been abandoned while the main mine was still in operation?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I believe the bill could be interperted that way, yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. That, Mr. Speaker, is the point I urge against this bill. As I interpert this bill, if an operator had an extensive operation and a portion of his operation was abandoned, he would have to seal regardless of whether the drainage of the acid mine water was in a polluted or a non-polluted stream, a very extensive expense upon the operator for no good purpose, particularly at a time when the State would be paying the cost of taking the acid mine water from his operation free of cost, while from that portion of the mine which he had abandoned he would be penalized.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I would say in reply to the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, that the bill provides in Section 1 that shafts or mines that are abandoned are to be sealed by the owner or the operator, > ——surface breaks and such portions of the outcrop as will admit air to said mine such sealing to be done in accordance with the directions of the Sanitary Water Board after consultation with the Department of Mines.

I believe there are provisions there that will not mandatorily say to the owner or operator that they have to seal that portion of the mine which could not be worked along with some of its main operation, because it would be up to the discretion of the Department of Mines in consultation with the Sanitary Water Board whether it is practicable and feasible that that be done, and whether the amount of air in the shaft or the outcrop might possibly cause some danger.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman from Lehigh will read on page two from line eight to line seventeen he will find that under that paragraph a mine operator could be burdened with a greater expense than he would have to bear if he had to provide out of his own pocket for the disposition of the acid mine water.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I disagree with the gentleman, Mr. Speaker, because it says when that is practicable and feasible after consultation with the Department of Mines and under the direction of the Sanitary Water Board. It is not a mandatory provision that this or that must be done, but it says what is practical and feasible after this consultation.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to further inquire what business has the Sanitary Water Board with the sealing of the shaft? You don't drink anything from the shaft.

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. I agree with the gentleman from Cambria that you do not drink anything from the shaft, but I think it is probably necessary to put that language in the bill so far as the sealing of abandoned coal mines or shafts allowing a certain amount of air is concerned, after consultation with the Department of Mines. The Sanitary Water Board would certainly have an interest in the overall problem of the abandoned mines and sealing these mines.

Mr. ANDREWS. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, this is a loosely drawn bill because the provisions are without proper legal construction, and because it places a wholly unnecessary burden upon mine owners. I shall have to oppose this bill, and I hope that some other people will oppose it. It is a bad bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 976) entitled "An act fixing the salary of the jury commissioners of the counties of the third class" by increasing such salary

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Section one of the act approved the twentieth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 976) entitled "An act fixing the salary of the jury commissioners of the counties of the third class" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted &c That the salary of each jury commissioner of the counties of the third class shall be [nine hundred dollars] one thousand two hundred dollars per annum

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Dix, in the House?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The gentleman is in the House.

Mr. ANDREWS. I would like to ask permission of the House to ask the gentleman whether he approves of this particular salary raiser.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Does the gentleman desire to interrogate the gentleman from Wayne?

Mr. ANDREWS. All I want to know, so my conscience will be clear, is whether the gentleman from Wayne approves of this particular salary raiser.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Cambria Mr. Andrews tell me how much is the increase of this salary and for how many people it provides for an increase.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will not because I have been laboring under the impression these many weeks, Mr. Speaker, that the gentleman from Wayne, Mr. Dix, has voted on a great many measures without having the faintest idea as to the amount of raise or salary increase.

Mr. DIX. Mr. Speaker, I think the gentleman from Cambria is mistaken. Is not the increase of this salary three hundred dollars?

Mr. Cohen of Philadelphia says that is correct, therefore, I think the gentleman from Cambria is in error. I would like to have you know that I would like to be recorded as voting "no" on this particular bill.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Luzerne permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WHITE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know from the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. White whether this three hundred dollar increase is for the purpose of allowing the jury commissioners in counties of the third class to pay their income tax?

Mr. WHITE. It would come in mighty handy, I think, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank the gentleman.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 559, as follows:

An Act to add section four hundred sixty-three to the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" authorizing the county commissioners to appropriate and spend money for the repair and maintenance of certain dams

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278) entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" is hereby amended by adding thereto after section four hundred sixty-two a new section to read as follows

Section 463 Repair and Maintenance of Dams The board of county commissioners may from time to time appropriate and expend out of the moneys of the county so much as may be necessary to reconstruct repair and maintain dams on the various streams in the county which are privately owned are not maintained and kept in proper repair by the owner and which in the opinion of the commissioners are essential for flood control agricultural uses preservation of wild life or the use and enjoyment of the public

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. COHEN. I should like to ask the gentleman from Montgomery whose dam bill this is.

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. Mr. Speaker, I will say this "dam" bill is mine.

Mr. COHEN. Now, Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman where the dam is located.

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman please repeat his question.

Mr. COHEN. I now ask the gentleman where the dams are located.

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. If the gentleman will read the measure, unless they have been moved since the bill was introduced, the dams are located on the several streams of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. COHEN. And the bill does not contemplate the improvement of dams or maintaining of dams on other than public property?

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. These dams may be privately owned, but the benefit will inure to the public.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentlemen please confine themselves to parliamentary language.

Mr. COHEN. It's all a question of where the Parliament is. It all depends on what book you are going by. I agree with you, if you are going by the Good Book you are all right but if you are going by Poor Richards Almanac it could not be repeated.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia agree that there is no end on the dams?

Mr. COHEN. It certainly is a dam and there is no end to the dams.

May I ask the gentleman whether or not this bill will permit repair of dams that are owned wholly or in part by the XYZ railroad for instance, assuming there might be some public good and public benefit by damming the water?

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. I believe so, yes.

Mr. COHEN. And also for water companies.

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. I believe so, yes.

Mr. COHEN. Power companies?

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. I believe so, yes. If the government knows they are there the county commissioners may at their discretion repair those dams where it is essential for flood control or for the preservation of wild life or generally for the impounding of water. Where the benefit may, as I said, inure to the benefit of the private dam owners to some small extent, or the public may receive a great benefit, in those cases county commissioners, in my opinion, are justified in spending public funds.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, various officials in the courthouse in my county are interested in a little recreation project that has a dam and they hold social functions there frequently late in the night, and this dam needs fixing. I am asking whether under this bill we can fix up that dam and have a nice recreation park at the expense of the county.

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. I should think that the gentleman if he goes to that particular dam site every once in a while, with the prestige he has in Cambria County, he can accomplish that purpose with his own County Commissioners.

Mr. FREED. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery County, Mr. Brunner.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. I shall.

Mr. FREED. Mr. Speaker, in reading this bill I assume that it means private streams and posted streams that are not allowed for the general public to fish in, that the County will pay for the damming of those streams.

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. Mr. Speaker, this bill specifically says that the County Commissioners shall reconstruct or repair any dams on the various streams in the county. That would include any streams.

Mr. FREED. And that would include streams that the general public are not allowed to fish in?

Mr. CHARLES H. BRUNNER, Jr. I believe so, Mr. Speaker. But I believe as a matter of policy, that no County Commissioners would go in to repair dams for the exclusive benefit of the owner of the dam where the public would not receive some benefit, either through flood control or as the measure says for certain agriculture uses or the preservation of wild life or the use and benefit of the public.

Mr. FREED. Mr. Speaker, the beneficiaries would be the ones that own the dams. I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 734, as follows:

An Act to authorize counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships school districts poor districts and county institution districts to file tax and municipal claims not filed within the time specified by law and to amend such claims where the property affected is not sufficiently described and to file suggestions of nonpayment and averments of default or to sue out writs of scire facias on certain tax or municipal claims and to revive judgments where the lien of such claims or the judgment thereon have been lost and providing for the reinstatement of the liens of such claims and judgments

Section 1 Whenever any county city borough incorporated town township school district poor district or county institution district has heretofore failed to file in the office of the prothonotary of the county any tax claim or municipal claim assessed against any property within the time limit required by law for such filing whereby the lien of such tax or municipal claim is lost or has heretofore filed any tax claim or municipal claim assessed against any property and in such claim has described the property against which the claim was assessed only by the name of the owner and the distance from a given point or has heretofore filed in the office of the prothonotary of the proper county any tax or municipal claim and the county city borough incorporated town township school district poor district or county institution district has not within the period of five years after the date on which any such claim was filed sued out a writ of scire facias to reduce the same to judgment or has not done so in time or in the case of a tax or municipal claim has within said period of five years filed a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default or whenever any writ of scire facias has been issued to reduce any such claim to judgment and by reason of defense or any other court proceedings or by reason of failure to file a praecipe on time judgment has not been entered within the period of five years after the date on which such writ was issued or whenever any such tax or municipal claim has been reduced to judgment and the county city borough incorporated town township school district poor district or county institution district has not within the period of five years after the date on which such judgment was entered or within five years after the date on which such judgment was last revived filed a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default or sued out a writ of scire facias to revive the same then in any such case any such county city borough incorporated town township school district poor district or county institution district may within one year after the effective date of this act file such tax or municipal claim or amend such claim so as to properly describe the property against which the claim is assessed or issue or reissue its praecipe for a writ of scire facias on any such tax or municipal claim and proceed to judgment in the manner provided by law to obtain judgments upon tax or municipal claims or in case a writ of scire facias has been issued but the same has not been reduced to judgment within five years from the date of issuance issue its praecipe for an alias writ of scire facias on any such tax or municipal claim and proceed to judgment in the manner provided by law to obtain judgments upon tax or municipal claims or in the case of a tax or municipal claim where no judgment has been entered file a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default or in case judgment has been entered on a tax or municipal claim either file a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default or issue its praecipe for a writ of scire facias on any such judgment and proceed to judgment in the manner provided by law to obtain judgments of revival and such claim or judgment so entered or revived shall be a valid claim or judgment and be a lien upon the real estate upon which it was assessed or upon which it was a lien at the time the claim was filed or the judgment was entered and said claim or judgment may be revived or further revived and collected as other claims or judgments upon tax or municipal claims are revived and collected Provided however That the lien of any such claim or judgment shall not attach or reattach against any real estate transferred to any purchaser before such claim is filed or during the time when the lien of any such tax or municipal claim or judgment was lost nor shall the lien of any such claim or judgment impair or affect the priority of the lien of any mortgage or other lien which gained priority because of the failure of the county city borough incorporated town township school district poor district or county institution district to file such claim or to properly describe the property against which the claim was assessed or to sue out the writ of scire facias or file a suggestion of nonpayment and an averment of default within the five year period or was entered of record during the time the lien of such tax or municipal claim or judgment was lost nor shall any such lien so revived impair or affect the priority of the lien of any mortgage or other lien which was entered prior to the tax or municipal claim or which gained priority during the time such lien was not revived or was not effective

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 25, as follows:

An Act to assist young men and women of the Commonwealth to obtain a higher education providing for competitive examinations placing certain duties upon the Department of Public Instruction and repealing certain laws

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 For the purpose of assisting young men and women of the Commonwealth to obtain a higher education the Commonwealth will award competitive four year scholarships fifteen hundred to be awarded each year for undergraduate study leading to a bachelor's degree which scholarships shall be usable in any college or university in the Commonwealth approved by the State Council of Education provided the holders of such scholarships shall be acceptable to the colleges or universities they desire to attend These scholarships shall be valid in any accredited graduate or professional school in the Commonwealth to which the holders of the same may elect to transfer with the approval of the Department of Public Instruction

Section 2 These scholarships shall be available to citizens of Pennsylvania who have been residents within the Commonwealth for a period of one year prior to the taking of the examination herein provided for and are graduates of secondary schools accredited by the Department of Public Instruction or who possess an education which in the opinion of the Department of Public Instruction is equivalent to that of a graduate of an accredited secondary school of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and who shall not at the time of the examination have been in attendance at any college or university

Section 3 Each scholarship shall have a value not exceeding three hundred fifty dollars ($350) for tuition instruction necessary textbooks laboratory and academic fees for a college year of two sixteen-week terms or its equivalent but not to exceed fourteen hundred dollars ($1400) for the full college course The scholarships shall be used for tuition and other above mentioned academic fees regularly charged to students but shall not include charges for social activities and intercollegiate athletics and not more than fifty percent of the same may be used for room and board in any one academic year A person receiving a scholarship under this act shall not be entitled to receive a scholarship under any other act

Section 4 Appointment to such scholarships shall be made by the Department of Public Instruction and persons entitled to such appointment shall be determined by competitive examinations to be conducted under the supervision of the Department of Public Instruction No distinction shall be made by reason of sex race color or creed in awarding these scholarships Due notice of examinations to be held under the provisions of this act shall be given in such manner as the Department of Public Instruction may prescribe

Section 5 Scholarships shall be proportionately allotted to the counties according to their respective populations as shall have been determined by the last preceding United States decennial census but each county of this Commonwealth shall receive at least one scholarship each year

Section 6 The Department of Public Instruction shall have authority and its duty shall be to make reasonable rules and regulations concerning the competitive examinations for scholarships and the granting retention and termination of scholarships as well as educational qualifications necessary for admittance to the competitive examinations such examinations shall not be limited to scholastic subjects but shall also be based on scholarship attainment general aptitude and future outlook of the applicant

Section 7 The Act approved the eighteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred nineteen (P. L. 1044) is hereby repealed but this repeal shall not affect any scholarship heretofore awarded under and by authority of said act

Section 8 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment and shall continue in effect until after the awarding of the scholarships in the year one thousand nine hundred fifty-one but all scholarships awarded will continue to their termination

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ROOT. May I interrogate either one of the sponsors of this bill?

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will one of the sponsors permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CADWALADER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROOT. Will the gentleman turn to page 3 of the bill and kindly explain to the House the purpose of the amendment, lines 22 to 24?

Mr. CADWALADER. This is not my amendment, Mr. Speaker. It was put in by the Committee. My idea of what we meant to do, instead of giving a man a scholarship for scholastic attainment, they pick someone who might be a good athlete or a good leader among men.

Mr. ROOT. Will the gentleman from Montgomery tell me whether he is in favor of this amendment?

Mr. CADWALADER. Do I think it is a proper amendment?

Mr. ROOT. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CADWALADER. I took it as a perfectly good amendment, yes.

Mr. ROOT. I thank the gentleman. Mr. Speaker, the bill has a sound and a meritorious purpose, but in view of these amendments which I hope the Members of this House will read, it says

> Examinations shall not be limited to scholastic subjects but shall be based on scholarship attainments, general aptitude and future outlook of the applicant.

Mr. Speaker, this opens the door wide to all sorts of political munipulations, and the man who will operate the awarding of this scholarship under this amendment, if he does not like the face of the applicant or the future outlook of the applicant or his general aptitude he does not have to pass that applicant.

Each and everyone of us who are acquainted with scholarship examinations heretofore know that the written examination was the only test, that is the only proper test, and why this amendment was inserted to permit these munipulations is beyond my understanding. I believe this bill in its present form should be either amended or defeated

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Cadwalader, the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CADWALADER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Will the gentleman explain what he means by "shall also be based on scholarship attainments?"

Mr. CADWALADER. Mr. Speaker, I would think that would merely mean a man that stands high and also a good leader among his own friends in school.

Mr. TAHL. And what does "scholarship attainment" mean?

Mr. CADWALADER. I would say a man who attains high scholarship.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, does not that mean a man that has a high rating in his class?

Mr. CADWALADER. A high standing, yes.

Mr. TAHL. Then why is that needed when the examinations are on the basis of those who get high marks, should get the scholarship? Why do you add this to the bill.

Mr. CADWALADER. I do not say that I did, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Then does the gentleman think it is superfulous?

Mr. CADWALADER. Wait just a minute. The reason we agreed to have that amendment in there is simply because if a man stands high in his class in college or school, is also a good athlete, a good leader among his own class, I think we will get a better type.

Mr. TAHL. Well now, what does the gentleman mean by a better type?

Mr. CADWALADER. You get a higher standard of man.

Mr. TAHL. How is it to be determined who is of a higher type and who is not expect by the marks that he has attained? Isn't that the way to determine the standing of a man, by the marks he has received from his school? Isn't it the way to determine the standing of a man by his scholaric mark that he received from the school?

Mr. CADWALADER. I wouldn't say so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. What does the gentleman think should determine the man's standing other than his records in the schools?

Mr. CADWALADER. I think you would want good marks, and if he is somewhat of an athlete that would go a long way.

Mr. TAHL. And how are you going to determine that from examinations?

Mr. CADWALADER. I am not going to determine that.

Mr. TAHL. How is anyone going to determine that? Who is the person who is going to determine all these activities and the things that you want to determine?

Mr. CADWALADER. I think that is very easy.

Mr. TAHL. Will the gentleman please explain how?

Mr. CADWALADER. Mr. Speaker, I do not think anybody can explain it. That is common sense.

Mr. TAHL. Then will the gentleman tell us?

Mr. CADWALADER. I don't think anybody can.

Mr. TAHL. Will the gentleman explain how anybody can determine the future outlook of an applicant?

Mr. CADWALADER. I don't think you can determine it absolutely, but you use your judgment when you pick them.

Mr. TAHL. In other words you are going to let somebody decide the things that nobody else can decide?

Mr. CADWALADER. May I say to the gentleman that you cannot decide these things by rule or law; you have to leave it to somebody's judgment.

Mr. TAHL. Whose judgment are you going to leave it to? In other words you are going to have it decided without any proper measure of examination; is that right or isn't it?

Mr. CADWALADER. Mr. Speaker, scholarships will be awarded on the basis of examination and general aptitude tests.

Mr. TAHL. And what is an aptitude test? How are you going to measure that by any examination?

Mr. CADWALLADER. I am not going to measure it.

Mr. TAHL. How is any person who is going to give the examination going to measure the one who is given an aptitude test?

Mr. CADWALADER. Common sense, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Isn't the system actually based on the idea to keep a pupil out of the school by using the aptitude test?

Mr. CADWALADER. I would not say so, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. Sollenberger said he would like to say a few things, and I yield to him.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I will put the same questions to him that I put to the gentleman from Montgomery. Will the gentleman explain them?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I will answer the gentleman's questions, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Will the gentleman kindly explain how anyone can tell the future outlook of an applicant.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, I presume that ninety to ninety-five percent of the secondary schools in Pennsylvania have their records of the activities of the children anywhere from the sixth grade through and including the twelfth grade. In those records it shows aptitude of the pupil, the inclination of the pupil, both from the standpoint of their I. Q. or intelligence quotient and from their desire to walk in a certain road in life.

In other words, in aptitude tests you test the pupil to find out whether he would be good material for an engineer or a doctor or a lawyer or a teacher or a laborer or any activity in life. We have many, many aptitude tests, and they are now rather accurate.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman then going to reply upon the records of the school?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Not necesarily. The college, under this bill, would have the right, of course, to interpert the remarks made by the supervising principal or the superintendent which are sent to the college, and of course, they naturally have their right to choose or reject; that is true.

Mr. TAHL. In other words, the candidate will have to be lucky to get the scholarship, isn't that right?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. No, Mr. Speaker, I would think that is not correct. The answer to the entire amendment is this, and to this question, that it is possible for a boy or girl to be highly intelligent but would not be worthy of a scholarship from two angles, first the parents might be quite wealthy, and we ought not to use the scholarships for the wealthy; secondly, the boy or the girl might not be the type of person to go to college to take up certain work because of the general conduct and the record that is found in the office of the superintendent or supervising principal, and that is money spent by the State which should not be spent.

Mr. TAHL. In other words, you are giving wide discretion to the person who is going to conduct these examinations to determine whether or not a certain candidate should or should not get the scholarship, despite the fact that he might have attained a high average in examinations, isn't that correct?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. No, not necessarily. I think you will find that the final examination would have practically the same result as the scholarship, but then the other two records would also be considered by the college or by the secondary school that is examining the applicant.

Mr. TAHL. Is the gentleman aware that at the present time the University of Pennsylvania is holding competitive examinations for various scholarships? Is he aware of that?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. TAHL. Do any of the rules of those examinations provide anything like the amendments in this bill.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. To give the gentleman a direct answer, Mr. Speaker, I could not do that, but there is not a week that I myself do not write out a recommendation for boys and girls of our high schools, and I assure the gentleman the most intelligent are not chosen by any means, because the recommendation does not always go in that line. We are trying to get high class citizens as well as highly educated pupils in these positions.

Mr. TAHL. Mr. Speaker, I thought that when the State is going to spend this money it is going to give a chance to the poor boys or girls who have the ability to pass the examinations, who have the brains to study in college. I did not think this bill was going to be a football of politics or anything else. If you want to spend the money of the State and set up some dictator or some arbitrary person to handle these scholarships and hand them out because he has a friend here or there, go ahead and do it. I will never vote for this kind of a bill. This should be a bill to give every boy and girl a fair chance, not to set up certain contigencies where a certain boy or girl could be turned down just because you do not like the face or the boy's name.

Mr. STOCKHAM. I think that the position that the gentleman from Philadelphia has just taken is not the point and the intent of this amendment. It is intended, as the committee believed when these subjects were discussed and studied at much length, that such an amendment as this gave an opportunity to the average intelligent school boy or girl an opportunity as against the brilliant child who would attain directly by scholastic attainments that scholarship.

May I point out to this House that at Fort Monmouth, where the Federal Government trains soldiers for specific work, that they have a course that operates first for eleven weeks. Those men who pass that course in eleven weeks then are sent on; those who do not are allowed twelve weeks, and those who have not attained it then go on to thirteen weeks. Now, what is the purpose of that sort of set up on the part of the army? Frankly this, one man is able to grasp and to hold in eleven weeks that subject matter and has accomplished all that is needed to make him perfect or to perfect him in that work, while another man takes twelve and another may take thirteen, and it is something on that principle and that basis that such thoughts as have been built into this amendment give the average child as against the brilliant child an equal opportunity.

Mr. LANE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Cadwalader.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CADWALADER. I shall.

Mr. LANE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if under the provisions of this bill a winner of the scholarship award can use any portion of this award for the purpose of attending a State Teachers College.

Mr. CADWALADER. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LANE. I thank the gentleman. I am going to vote for the bill.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I shall.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I would like to ask the gentleman from Blair whether or not a boy or girl would be prevented from going to a professional school like the Philadelphia School of Pharmacy or the Pennsylvania State College of Optometry directly through one of these scholarships?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman if that part of the school gives a baccalaureate degree that boy or girl may enter any one of these colleges.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Under this bill would it be possible for a boy or girl to go directly to a professional school that did not give a Doctor's Degree without attending college first?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. No, I think not. It must be a school that gives a baccalaureate degree.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know from the gentleman from Blair whether or not the committee feels it is fair to compel a boy or girl to go to a school and get a Doctor's degree when they desire to study for a subject not giving a degree.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, the committee discussed that rather extensively, and from the information we received or that we gathered, we felt that this ought to be confined definitely to those universities and colleges that give the baccalaureate degree.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know further from the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Speaker, the reason why the committee felt that way, if there was a reason.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, the various schools that give a baccalaureate degree require high school graduates of the equivalent thereof for entrance, and some of the other schools that were mentioned do not require that. This will keep the scholarship on a high plane by keeping it among graduates of secondary schools and only entrants into schools with the baccalaureate degree.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I believe in one of the speeches the Governor made to the Legislature he stated that he would like to see a bill of this type passed. I feel that it is good legislation and it is a worthwhile thing for boys and girls of the Commonwealth. Nevertheless, these amendments appear to be rather confusing, and I do not think it is fair to the boy or girl who wishes to study a profession in a school that does not give a baccalaureate degree to be prevented from doing so by this bill. I believe this objection probably could be straightened out by a discussion with the proponents of the amendments.

MOTION TO POSTPONE

Mr. CHUDOFF. I move, Mr. Speaker, that this bill be placed on the final passage postponed calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. CADWALADER. Mr. Speaker, I oppose this motion. The time is getting short now. If you are going to do anything with the bill we have got to do it now. I object to any postponement.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FREED. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Will the gentleman from Blair permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. I shall.

Mr. FREED. Mr. Speaker, will this amendment allow school teachers to give the proper average to the pupils instead of forcing the marks?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, the inference in that statement of course has to be questioned. I am not or do not have any brief for the school teachers, but I would say that that is a far-fetched thought, that a teacher in one town is going to give marks that the child does not deserve, either higher or lower, when all the town or township high schools in the entire county will be taking the examination. That would not be practical to try to cheat for a child in your own schools because there may be a dozen others or even more in the same county that would be higher than those children. Those marks would not affect that when it comes to these examinations.

Mr. FREED. Do I interpret that, that athletics will give them a credit as well as scholastic standing? Would athletics give them a credit in this particular amendment?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. No. Mr. Speaker, not so far as your scholastic standing is concerned, but that would be true so far as the valuation of the entire three phases of the amendment are concerned, but should not and would not have overwhelming control.

Mr. FREED. In the opinion of the gentleman, does he believe that the teachers are in favor of this particular amendment?

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Of course, Mr. Speaker, I can only speak for one, and there are sixty thousand one hundred forty-six others according to the 1943 record which I could not speak for. If the gentleman wants to know my personal opinion as to whether the teachers would do that or not I would have to say no. I feel teachers are not that unfair.

Mr. FREED. That is all, Mr. Speaker.

I believe that by this amendment your teachers would be worthy of a lot of things back home in their classrooms as they have been. My knowledge tells me from the times I have attended different school board and school district meetings they are being compelled to do things that they don't like to do, and this amendment relieves them from that. For that reason I am going to vote for this bill.

Mr. SKALE. Mr. Speaker, I feel that this amendment destroys the competitive feature of this bill. By that I mean the competitive feature as it was originally intended by this bill.

I have listened attentively to the interrogations, and I find that the proponents have labored hard to try to defend these amendments, but I feel they have not convinced me at least that this amendment would carry out the original intention of a worthy competitive bill for the persons for whom this type of legislation was intended. It does not make any difference to me whether the student is poor or rich or whether he is athletically inclined or not; the purpose of this bill is to give higher education to those who can properly qualify from an educational standpoint.

This amendment almost entirely relieves the burden of scholastic attainment by way of education and permits a wide discretion by the person to whom this is entrusted, whether or not the applicant is worthy of a scholarship. As was probably pointed out by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Root, and the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Tahl, if the examining board does not like the looks of the individual, does not like his appearance at the time he appears before the board for the test, he can be disqualified even though he attained a very high educational standard. I say that because I know of instances where institutions have refused a top-notch student because of this tricky clause called "aptitude attainment." This bill was written so that the scholarship would be granted and determined by competitive examination based on educational standards. Now we find the sneaker amendment inserted at this time which would eiminate almost entirely the basis of educational standards and scholastic attainment. The student who rates high educationally and low athletically could very well be refused a scholarship under this amendment. It may be that the proponents of this amendment and this bill, the way it stands now, will argue no, but I say to you from actual contact with applicants who have attempted to obtain admission into institutions where these tricky clauses were thrown into their faces were denied admission. I say to you ladies and gentlemen of the House, if we pass this bill with this type of an amendment then we are committing a fraud upon the worthy students who really want higher education.

I heard the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Sollenberger, say that this bill would tend to guide the applicant into the various professions. I say to the Members of the House that this bill is not intended to guide any applicant to any particular type of education or field or profession. It does not make any difference if a laborer wants higher education, because the purpose of this bill is to grant higher education if he has the ability and the knowledge to pass competitive examination based solely on educational standards and not also on athletics and aptitude. This clause reads "and future outlook of the applicant." That is made a part of the entire section and it cannot be separated. The language must be taken and read in its entirety and not separately, and if the examiner does not happen to agree with the applicant's future outlook then good-bye applicant. I say to the membership of this House that the bill put before us is bad, and if you pass it you are committing a fraud on the very people whom you wish to help. I ask and plead with the proponents of this bill to pass this bill over and give an opportunity to those peope who are interested in this bill to put it in proper shape. and I am sure that then we will all be for it.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—0

The majority required by the Constiution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. CHUDOFF offered the following reasons for his vote:

I vote against this bill not because the purpose of the bill is not a good one, but I do feel that the bar to allow the student to go to a professional or technical school of his choice is not fair to the student.

I also feel that the provision which allows a scholarship to a boy or girl without a real scholastic competitive examination, might allow politics to enter in the awarding of a scholarship.

Mr. SKALE offered the following reason for his vote:

I desire to be recorded as voting "No" on this bill. The Bill in its original form without the amendment on page 3 was sufficient to carry out the purpose and intent. This amendment, however, destroys that intent.

This Bill is based on competitive educational standards but the amendment changes it to include athletics, "aptitude and future outlook of the applicant."

The phrases "general aptitude" and future outlook of the applicant are so broad in their application that an applicant whose general appearance does not appeal to the Examining Board can be turned down even though he is otherwise a brilliant student.

The Bill without the amendment would be a good bill and I would vote for it. In its present form it is a mockery and a fraul upon the very people we want to help.

THE SPEAKER (Ira T. Fiss) IN THE CHAIR

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Scanlon, for presiding.

SENATE BILL No. 502 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I move Senate Bill No. 502, Printer's No. 294, together with the amendments which were laid on the table April 30, 1945, bill on second reading, be taken from the table.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House resumed the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 502, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the thirtieth day of March one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 115) entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the first class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors and prescribing the powers and duties of cities parties bodies of electors registration commissions commissioners registrars inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions election officers municipal officers departments and bureaus police officers courts judges prothonotaries sheriffs county commissioners peace offiers county treasurers county controllers registrars of vital statistics real estate brokers rental agents certain public service companies persons firms and corporations operating vehicles for moving furniture and household goods and boards of school directors and imposing penalties" by revising and changing the provisions of said act relating to the times of registering electors and comparing and correcting the general and district registers

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CHUDOFF offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 17), page 3, line 26, by striking out the words "municipal or".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 17), page 3, line 27, by striking out the light face bracket before the word "the".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 17), page 3, line 29, by striking out the light face bracket after the word "the".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 17), page 4, line 1, by striking out the light face brackets before the word "holding" and after the word "elections".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 17), page 4, lines 20 and 21, by striking out the words "or municipal".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 17), page 4, line 22, by striking out the light face bracket before the word "and" where it appears the first time.

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 17), page 4, line 23, by striking out the light face bracket after the word "election".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 34), page 5, line 10, by striking out the light face bracket before the word "and".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 34), page 5, line 11, by striking out the light face bracket after the word "election".

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose the amendments and ask that the Members of the House vote against the amendments offered by the gentleman from Philadelphia.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to interrogate the Chairman of the Elections Committee, the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Dalrymple.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentlefrom from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. I shall.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Mr. Speaker, I should like to know from the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Dalrymple, as to whether or not this bill, Senate Bill 502, affects Philadelphia only.

Mr. DALRYMPLE. Yes, it does, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know from the gentleman from Erie as to whether or not under this bill in its present form without amendments the last day for registering will be fifty days before an election?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know whether or not the gentleman knows that when primaries are held in the fall of the year for municipal elections sometimes fifty days do not intervene between the primary and municipal elections.

Mr. DALRYMPLE. The genteman will find that this is a duration measure and the primaries are held in June. The gentleman will find that if he checks the bill.

Mr. CHUDOFF. Does this bill provide that it will only be for the duration?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. That is right, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. For the June primaries?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. That is right.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I should like to know from the gentleman as to whether or not the County Commissioners Association of Pennsylvania is not trying to have the election law provide for a June primary after the war?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. Yes, they did, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. CHUDOFF. How will that effect the question of thirty-five days?

Mr. DALRYMPLE. I do not think that you would find that in the bill if the gentleman would read the bill. I do not think that that portion is in the bill.

Mr. CHUDOFF. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, this bill is one of a series of amendments to the permanent registration law. In Pennsylvania, in all counties but Philadelphia the county commissioners take care of registration of electors. In Philadelphia we have a separate and distinct registration commission. I believe, Mr. Speaker, the purpose of this separate registration commission is due to the fact that there are more voters in Philadelphia than any other place in the Commonwealth, and they set up this commission because they felt that there are problems confronting the registration commission in Philadelphia that do not affect any other registration commission in the Commonwealth.

We feel that fifty days is necessary for the purpose of putting the registration records in order in both the Governors and the Presidential elections. However in a municipal election not as many people register to vote as they do in the Governor or Presidential election, and due to the fact that many of our voters are working in the war plants and finding it difficult to get time off to go either to the registration place in city hall or to the registration place in the field they should have at least fifteen days more to give them an opportunity to register there vote.

We feel if this bill is passed without amendment it will definitely take away a service that they should have. Under the circumstances I think if a war time measure is being passed it should be for the convenience of the public and not make it more difficult to register. Therefore, I ask the members of the House to vote for these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The second and third sections and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Will the Speaker inform the House what is required to take a bill off the table?

The SPEAKER. A motion is required.

Mr. O'BRIEN. How many votes are necessary?

The SPEAKER. A majority vote is necessary to take from the table.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Are not one hundred five votes necessary to take a bill from the table?

The SPEAKER. A majority vote is required to take the bill from the table.

Mr. O'BRIEN. That is one hundred five votes?

The SPEAKER. That is not necessary. A majority vote of those voting is required to take a bill from the table.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Does the Speaker say that a constitutional majority is not necessary.

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Is it necessary that a majority of the Members be present?

The SPEAKER. A quorum must be present.

Mr. O'BRIEN. How do you determine a quorum without a roll call?

The SPEAKER. We have had roll calls all afternoon that indicate a quorum in the House.

BILLS ON SECOND READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 574, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 828) entitled "An act to provide revenue by imposing a State tax upon sales or agreements to sell or memoranda of sales of stock and upon deliveries or transfers of shares or certificates of stock in domestic and foreign corporations copartnership associations and joint-stock associations providing the manner of collecting such tax and prescribing penalties" by providing an alternative method of collection of such tax

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to,

Ordered. To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 577, entitled:

An Act to amend section seven hundred eight and to further amend clause (f) of section seven hundred thirty-one of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by changing the time limitation for tagging big game controlling the removal and transportation of big game requiring report of such killing and providing penalties

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. RAY L. RILEY offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 708), page 3, line 2, by striking out the word "deer".

Amend Sec. 1 (Sec. 708). page 3, line 3, by inserting after the word "male" the word: "deer".

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The second and third sections and title were separately read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 641, Printer's No. 483,

was passed over at the request of Mr. MAHANY.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 106, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections two hundred twenty, and two hundred eighty-five of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 448), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters, and the boundary lakes, and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," increasing the resident fishing license fee; and limiting the use of the money derived from such increase

And said bill hving been read at length the second time and agreed to

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 717, entitled:

An Act authorizing the playing of certain sports on Sunday after certain hours where the electors of a municipality or township vote in favor of the same providing for referendums to ascertain the will of the electors prescribing penalties and repealing inconsistent laws

The first section was read and agreed to.

The second section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. WHITE offered the following amendments:

Amend Section 2, page 1, line 6, by inserting after the part word "ing" the following: "or basket ball".

Amend Sec. 2, page 1, line 7, by inserting after the word "hockey" the following: "or basket ball."

Amend Sec. 2, page 1, line 8, by inserting after the part word "ing" the following: "or a place for the playing of basket ball."

Amend Sec. 2, page 2, line 6, by inserting after the word "skating" the following: "or basket ball."

Amend Sec. 2, page 2, line 7, by inserting after the word "hockey" the following "or basket ball."

Amend Sec. 2, page 2, line 8, by inserting after the word "skating" the following "or a place for the playing of basket ball."

Amend Sec. 2, page 2, lines 14 and 15, by striking out the words "the holding of ice skating ice skating exhibitions and the playing of ice hockey" and the inserting in lieu thereof: "the playing of such games or the giving or holding of such exhibitions."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose these amendments and ask that they be voted down.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

They were not agreed to.

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

Mr. WHITE. Speaker, I withdraw all my other amendments to this bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HEATHERINGTON offered the following amendments:

Amend sec. 2, page 2, line 2, by inserting after the word "same" the following "or to conduct or operate a bowling alley or alleys."

Amend sec. 2, page 2, line 11, by inserting after the word "same" the following: "or to conduct or operate a bowling alley or alleys."

Amend sec. 2, page 2, line 15, by inserting after the word "hockey" the following: "or the operation of bowling alleys."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I really think that to me and to a lot of members Sunday bowling is just as important to the House as hockey is to the Senate, and I ask for a roll call on the amendment to include Sunday bowling in Senate Bill 717.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. COHEN. Do the rules of the House providing against a Member's voting who has a personal interest in a measure apply on a roll call vote for an amendment, and do the rules prohibit him from voting on a roll call on an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will read Rule 72 of the House:

> A member who has a personal or private interest in any measure or bill proposed or pending before the House will disclose that fact to the House and shall not vote thereon, as required by the Constitution, Article III, Section 33.

Mr. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I then instruct the Clerk not to record my vote either way because I have a personal interest in the measure before the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will not be recorded, having stated that he has a personal interest.

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, I ask the Members of the House to vote down this amendment.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Heatherington and Mr. Cullen and were as follows:

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker I desire to withdraw the remainder of my amendments to this bill.

The section was agreed to.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Messrs. O'BRIEN and SCANLON offered the following amendments:

Amend Sec. 3, page 3, line 5, by striking out the words and figures "two per centum (2%)", and inserting in lieu thereof: "twenty per centum (20%)."

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. LICHTENWALTER. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the House vote against the amendments.

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker, I just want to point out for the information of the House that the referendum on Sunday movies is now twenty per cent, and most of the referendums are along those lines. In the interest of consistency I think the Members of the House should accept these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER declared the noes appeared to have it.

Whereupon, a division was called for, fifty-six Members having voted in the affirmative and eight-two in the negative, the question was determined in the negative and the amendments were not agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

AMENDMENTS WITHDRAWN

Mr. O'BRIEN. Mr. Speaker I desire to withdraw the remainder of the amendments to section 5.

The fourth section was read and agreed to.

The fifth section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, I object to that motion and ask that the Members vote it down.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliametnary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Is a motion to recommit debatable, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The motion is debatable within the limits of the motion, of course.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, this bill because of its peculiar, if not devious history deserves the scrutiny of the House Law and Order Committee, which I understand it has not had. The trail of this bill goes back to the Senate where a measure of this character was referred to the Committee on Forests and Water, Game and Fish, to pass upon a municipal problem. I say that this measure has had a peculiar history and deserves the scrutiny of the House Law and Order Committee because it has borne to this time a charmed life. It was referred to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish on April 17, and such was the compulsion, the strange compulsion behind this measure that it emerged from the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish on April 18. The Fish Committee gets the Hockey Bill on the 17. The distinguished Senate gets a Hockey Bill on the 18. And, it comes over to our own chaste chamber. And does it go to the Law and Order Committee? It does not. Where should a bill affecting the morality of a community, and the Clergy say this bill affects the morality of a community, go if not to the Law and Order Committee? The Clergymen who have written to me, as they have doubtless written to you, have written in protest against the speed with which this marvelous bill, referred to Fish and Game in the beginning, has made its way through both Chambers. They feel and I feel that somewhere along the line those interested in what the Clergy have to say, what the people that are interested in Sunday observance have to say—I do not agree with all of them, but I respect them enough to accord them a hearing, and I would not think of putting a bill that does affect them into Game and Forest and Waters and Fish.

This bill belongs back in your Law and Order Committee because it has had a trail of slime. This bill is worth twenty-five thousand dollars to some party's campaign fund and it is not my party. That is why the haste—there has been so much haste—and that is why this bill should go back to your own Law and Order Committee to be given proper consideration.

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, made the statement that this bill might affect somebody's campaign fund to the extent of twenty-five thousand dollars———

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny will state it.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. What business are we under now?

The SPEAKER. A motion to recommit.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Or a roll call?

The SPEAKER. A motion to recommit. The roll call has not been started. The gentleman from Lycoming is in order. He may proceed.

Mr. ELDER. Mr. Speaker, I ask the Members of the House to vote down the motion to recommit this bill.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, to make sure of the record I ask that the roll be verified.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Andrews and Mr. Cullen, and were as follows:

Messrs. Heatherington, Andrews and Lovett asked for a verification of the roll.

The roll was verifieed and was as follows:

Mr. HUNTLEY. Mr. Speaker, I voted present.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman cannot vote present. The gentleman is required to vote for or against the motion.

Mr. HUNTLEY. I don't know how to vote, Mr. Speaker. I think it ought to come to the Law and Order Committee, but I don't want to vote it there, to my Committee.

The SPEAKER. How does the gentleman vote?

Mr. HUNTLEY. Aye.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the section?

It was agreed to.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Oredered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. BENTLEY,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 853, as follows:

An Act to further amend section four hundred two of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 853) entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws" by further providing for the assessment and valuation of buildings under construction repair or reconstruction in counties of the second class

Section 1 Section four hundred two of the act approved the twenty-second day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 853) entitled "An act relating to taxation designating the subjects property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons property and subjects of taxation for county purposes and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations amending revising and consolidating the law relating thereto and repealing existing laws" as amended by the act approved the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 143) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 402 Valuation of Property It shall be the duty of the several elected and appointed assessors and in townships of the first class of the assessors assistant township assessors and assistant triennial assessors to assess rate and value all objects of taxation whether for county city township town school institution district poor or borough purposes according to the actual value thereof and at such rates and prices for which the same would separately bona fide sell In arriving at such value the price at which any property may actually have been sold shall be considered but shall not be controlling Instead such selling price estimated or actual shall be subject to revision by increase or decrease to accomplish equalization with other similar property within the taxing district

In determining the value of real estate in counties of the second class for the year one thousand nine hundred forty-five and thereafter no building in the process of construction shall be valued or assessed for any purpose and no building being repaired or reconstructed shall have its prior valuation increased by reason thereof until such construction repairs or reconstruction shall have been completed or is so near completion that such building has been or could be placed in actual use or occupancy

Section 2 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 3 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the sponsor of this bill, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Bentley.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BENTLEY. I shall.

Mr. SHAFFER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny explain to the Membership of the House in a few words this particular amendment and the purpose of it?

Mr. BENTLEY. This bill, Mr. Speaker, is an amendment to the County Assessment Law, affecting, however, only the County of Allegheny. It provides that in determining the value or assessment on any particular property, to the extent that there is construction going on on that property or repairs to the buildings located on the property, the increase in taxes shall not be considered in determining the market price or the assessment for taxation purposes.

In other words this is the situation in Allegheny County, and I am advised it is the only County in the state where this is done, the assessors in Allegheny County in going out and making assessments on property will come to a home in progress of construction. For example, it might be fifty percent completed. In levying taxes and in assessing values on that property the assessors will place a value on the land and then take fifty percent of the complete building and place an assessed valuation on that. The taxes therefore are imposed on the uncompleted building, and the object of this bill is to foster and sponsor building in Allegheny County. The small home owner will frequently find in buying a piece of property there is an assessment, a tax which has had to be included in that of perhaps one hundred dollars. All that this bill does is that until the building is substantially complete it shall not be assessed for tax purposes. We feel in the long run the assessed valuation will be raised although perhaps immediately there might be a slight loss, but in looking at the thing in the long view we feel that this municipal plight that is affecting so many municipalities will be obviated by giving this incentive to the people to build.

Mr. SHAFFER. The gentleman states that this amendment only affects Counties of the second class, is that right?

Mr. BENTLEY. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SHAFFER. Now will the gentleman tell me why if this bill is so good, why it is not good for counties of other classes?

Mr. BENTLEY. Mr. Speaker, I think I might have covered that in my first remark, but I will be brief. I understand that the assessors in Allegheny County are the only assessors who have seen fit to levy assessments on uncompleted buildings and dwellings. I understand that assessors in other parts of the State do not levy assessments under those conditions. However, if they do, still we feel that this is a good thing for Allegheny County, and if any other counties want to do this, although I am advised that they do not, then let them come in and present a bill, but at least for the present let us not discard a benefit for Allegheny County because the other counties do not want it.

Mr. SHAFFER. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, it is only natural that the membership of this House finds itself filled with milk and honey and generosity. Too often we have a tendency to rescind and wipe off the books certain sources of revenue to the various municipalities. At the same time we also passed legislation increasing the cost of government of that particular municipality. We increased the services which they are required to perform. This bill is one of those bills which seeks to give a tax exemption in Allegheny County in a certain type of situation, which the gentleman from Allegheny has so ably explained. The law now is of course that taxes are levied the first of January of each year. The assessor goes around once a year, in the summer or in the fall and assesses the building as he finds it then. The law now probably favors some people, and on some it works perhaps to a little disadvantage.

I do not want to take much time, but I will give just a quick illustration: the assessment is set for one year and the building is only fifty per cent completed. The building might be one hundred per cent completed one month later, but that fifty per cent assessment remains on the books for the entire year, so that building stands to benefit by it and of course the reverse is true. I do not have the exact figures how much it will affect Allegheny County, but I know it will be a substantial amount, because we do not pass bills to exempt nothing, we pass bills to exempt some substantial income, and if we continue to pass bills exempting on the one hand and on the other hand passing legislation that lays heavier burdens and increasing the cost of government, we can only end up in one place, and that is that we are going to be embarrassed. It seems to me on that theory that this amendment is not necessary and therefore it is bad because it exempts certain properties and cuts down the revenue to the county of Allegheny.

Mr. BENTLEY. Mr. Speaker, I think I can safely say that my record in this House and the remarks that I made indicate that I am fully aware of the fact that in Allegheny County we have a falling assessment base, and I would be indeed inconsistent if not worse if I were to come here on one hand and ask for increased revenue for the County and City and on the other hand attempt to take away that revenue by legislation such as this, but I believe in the long view of this thing and the view that every thinking man in this House will take, is that this bill will provide an impetus to building, it will give a shot in the arm to building. It says to the prospective home owner "We'll give you a break." What will be the ultimate result of that? There will be increased building, there will be increased assessments in Allegheny County, and in the long view there will be a more valuable and a broader assessment base if we can offer this inducement to build in Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh. It is on that basis alone that I offer this bill to the House and ask the support of the Members.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Bentley.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BENTLEY. I shall.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. In the downtown district today Kaufmann's have the largest department store building which is taxed. If this bill passed and they went into court and showed that the building was not completed, would the County Commissioners have the right to tax?

Mr. BENTLEY. Mr. Speaker, the bill provides that if a building is substantially complete then it is subject to tax. Now on a proposition such as that I say that if we can offer an inducement to Kaufmann's or any other large corporation to build by saying to them "Until you get this building into productive use it will not be subject to tax" then I say that Allegheny County will be well off. Perhaps they will have to take the fifty per cent off the rolls for the year, but for the next forty or fifty years they are going to have a building there which will be subject to assessment, and perhaps many a person and many a corporation will be induced to build if this inducement is offered to them. In that way I say that the county will be benefited, although immediately it might appear that there would be a slight loss.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. I am only going to take about two minutes, Mr. Speaker, because in my opinion this bill will take care of the large corporations and the large buildings in the City of Pittsburgh, which means that the people in the boroughs and townships will have to make up the assessments in the county that are saved by those corporations, and I ask all the Members to vote no on this bill.

Mr. BENTLEY. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentlemany from Allegheny whether or not the majority of building is going on within the limits of the City of Pittsburgh or without, that is in the county proper, and I refer particularly to the small builder.

Mr. HEATHERINGTON. The small homes are on the outside of Pittsburgh.

Mr. BENTLEY. That is all, Mr. Speaker.

SENATE MESSAGES

RESOLUTIONS FOR CONCURRENCE

In the Senate, April 24. 1945.

Whereas, it has come to the attention of the members of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that the oldest school of applied art in America. the Moore Institute of Art, located in Philadelphia, has recently ended the hundredth year of its exsitence as a valuable constituent of the educational facilities offered by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, the said Moore Institute of Art has become the largest school of art exclusively for women, known to be in operation anywhere in the world, and the training offered young women in design has supplied to the manufacturers of America trained talent of inestimable value in many fields, be it therefore

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) that the General Assembly of Pennsylvania extends its congratulations to the officers, directors and faculty of the Moore Institute of Art, located in Philadelphia, and its wishes for the Institute's continued success in the second century of its existence, and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution, properly authenticated, be forwarded to the Moore Institute of Art, and to the Honorable Edwin O. Lewis, its President, as a token of the General Assembly's appreciation of the excellent work performed by the Institute.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate of Pennsylvania, March 12, 1945.

Whereas, The establishing of a permanent peace for the whole world is the earnest prayer of all civilized mankind; and

Whereas, It is the unanimous and just opnion of all conscientious people that those who bore the brunt of the fighting in this war should also have a prominent voice in the making of the peace; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives of the 1945 Session of the Pennsylvania State Legislature, hereby memorializes the Congress of the United States of America, to require that in any peace conference which is to decide the final adjustments for the future world peace, that each branch of the fighting forces of the Nation shall be represented at the said peace conference and each branch of the fighting forces to be appointed by members of said forces, who have been actively engaged at the various fronts and on the seas; and be it further

Resolved, That each member so representing his or her branch of the service shall have full voice and vote in any and all final decisions; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution, signed by the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, be transmitted to the President of the United States, the Secretary of State of the United States, the President of the Senate of the United States, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.
